And the messengers departed, and brought him word again. for [a]at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods [god is a god] are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; [we:] but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. 24 And do this thing; [thing, take] Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put [1]captains in their rooms; [room:] 25 and number thee an army, like the army [*]that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so. 26 And it came to pass [a]at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered [numbered] the Syrians, and went up to [d]Aphek, [†]to fight against Israel. 27 And the children of Israel were mustered, [numbered,] and [‡]were victualled, [all present,] and went against them: and the children of Israel encamped [pitched] before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. 28 And [2]a [f]man of God came near [there came a man of God,] and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, [h]The LORD is [a god] God of the hills, but he is not [a god] God of the valleys; [valleys,] therefore [i]will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 29 And they encamped [pitched] one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; [joined:] and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to [d]Aphek, into the city; and [the there a] wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, [3§]into [b]an inner chamber. 31 And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, [we I] pray thee, [c]put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life. 32 So they [c]girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother. 33 Now the men [4]observed diligently, did diligently observe and hasted [5]to catch whether it were whether any thing would come from him, and did [6]his mind; hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. 34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, [e]The cities [cities,] which my father took from thy father [father,] I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in [g]Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. [And I, said Ahab, Then said Ahab, I] will let thee go [send thee away] with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let [sent] him go. [away.]

35 And a certain man of [j]the sons of the prophets said unto his fellow [k]by neighbour in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. 36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee.

And as soon as he was departed from him, [a]a lion found him, and slew him. 37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, *so that in smiting (smiting and wounding) he wounded him. 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and [d]disguised himself with his headband over ashes upon his eyes face.
39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, [e]then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt †pay a talent of silver.

43 And the king of Israel [g]went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

21 1 And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in [i]Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. 2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, [k]Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house; (house:) and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; (it:) or, if it §seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money. 3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, [b]that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee. 4 And Ahab [c]came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. 5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread? 6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.
7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. 8 So she wrote [1]letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto [h]the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, and that dwelt (dwelling) with Naboth. 9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth [2]‖on high among the people: 10 and set two men, [j]sons of [3]Belial, before him, and let them (to) bear witness against him, saying, [l]Thou didst [4]curse (blaspheme) God and the king. 22 [1] And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.
[2] [a]And it came to pass in the third year, that [c]Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. [3] And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that [c]Ramoth-gilead (Ramoth in Gilead) is ours, and we [1]be *still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? [4] And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [f]I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses. [5] And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD (to-day. / to day.) [6] Then the king of Israel [i]gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king. [7] (But / And) [j]Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here (besides) a prophet of the LORD, (LORD besides,) that we might inquire of him? [8] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one (man, Micaiah the son) of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD, (Micaiah the son of Imlah. / LORD.) but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. [9] Then the king of Israel called an [2]†officer, and said, (Fetch quickly / Hasten hither) Micaiah the son of Imlah. [10] (Now / And) the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, (arrayed in / having put on) their robes, in [3]an (a ‡void) place [m]at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. [11] And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him [b]horns of (iron, / iron:) and (he) said, Thus saith the LORD, With these [d]shalt thou push the Syrians, until (they be consumed. / thou have consumed them.) [12] And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the (hand of the king. / king's hand.) [13] And the messenger that (went / was gone) to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak (thou / that which is) good. [14] And Micaiah said, [g]As the LORD liveth, [h]what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak. [15] And (So / when) he (was come / came) to the king. (king, / And) the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go (to / against) Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go (up), and (prosper; / prosper: and / for) the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. [16] And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou (speak / tell) (unto) me nothing but (the truth / that which is true) in the name of the LORD? [17] And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the (mountains, / hills,) [k]as sheep that have (no / not a) shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no (master; / master:) let them return every man to his house in peace. [18] And the king of Israel said (to / unto) Jehoshaphat, [l]Did I not tell thee that he would (not prophesy / prophesy no) good concerning me, but evil? [19] And he said, (Therefore hear thou / Hear thou therefore) the word of the LORD: [m]I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, [o]and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. 20 And the LORD said, Who shall [1]entice [*]persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this [manner; manner,] and another said on that manner. 21 And there came forth [2]a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will [entice persuade] him. 22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be [c]a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt [entice persuade] him, and [shalt] prevail also: go forth, and do so. 23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy [prophets; prophets,] and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee. 24 [Then But] Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah [came went] near, [d]and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the [spirit Spirit] of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? 25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see [on in] that day, when thou shalt go [3]†[f]into ‡an inner chamber to hide thyself. 26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; 27 and say, Thus saith the king, [h]Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, [i]until I come in peace. 28 And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, [j]the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, [k]Hear, ye peoples, all [Hearken, O people, every one] of you.

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. 30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, §[a]I will disguise myself, and [go enter] into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. 31 [Now But] the king of Syria [had] commanded [b][the his] thirty and two captains [of that had] rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel. 32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of [Israel; and Israel. And] they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out. 33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots [saw perceived] that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. 34 And a certain man drew [his a] bow [4]‖[e]at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between [5]the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; [g]for I am [sore ††wounded]. 35 And the battle ‡‡increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the [bottom §§midst] of the chariot. 36 And there went a [cry proclamation] throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his [own] country. 37 So the king died, and *was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. 38 And [they one] washed the chariot [by in] the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; (6now the harlots washed themselves there;) and they washed his armour;

the angel of the LORD said to Elijah [a]the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is no not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of [b]Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? 4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, *[c]Thou shalt not come down from the that bed whither on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed. 5 And when the messengers returned turned back unto him, and he said unto them, Why is it that are ye ye are returned now turned back? 6 And they said unto him, There came up a man a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is no not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of [b]Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from the that bed whither on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. 7 And he said unto them, †What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words? 8 And they answered him, [f]He was [1]an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite. 9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he [2]sat on the top of the an hill. And he spake unto him, [g]O Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down. 10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then [i]let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. 11 And again Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly. 12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And [d]the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. 13 And again he sent the he sent again a captain of a the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and ‡fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, [e]be precious in thy sight. 14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and consumed burnt up the two former captains of fifty captains of the former fifties with their fifties: but now therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight. 15 And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king. 16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of [b]Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down from the off that bed whither on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. 17 So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And he said, [e]As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho. 5 And [f]the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master [i]from thy head to-day to day? And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. 7 And fifty men of [f]the sons of the prophets went, and stood over against them *to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan. 8 And Elijah [m]took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, [n]and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground. 9 And it came to pass, [1]when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let [2]a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. 10 And he said, †Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. 11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared [3][g]a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, which and parted them both asunder; [h]and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, [j]the [4]chariots of Israel, chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof! thereof. 13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, [f]What have I to do with thee? get thee to [g]the prophets of thy father, and to [h]the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for [i]the LORD hath called these three kings together together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
14 And Elisha said, [j]As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.
15 But now [k]bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that [m]the hand of the LORD came upon him.
16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of trenches. ditches.
17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain, rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water: and water, that ye shall may drink, both ye ye, and your cattle cattle, and your beasts.
18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will also deliver the Moabites also into your hand.
19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all fountains wells of water, [b]and *mar every good piece of land with stones.
20 And it came to pass in the morning, about the time of [c]offering the when the meat offering was oblation, offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.
21 Now And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they [1]†gathered themselves together, all that were able to [2]‡put on armour, and upward, and stood on in the border.
22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them on the other side as red as blood:
23 and they said, This is blood; blood: the kings [3]are surely destroyed, §slain, and they have smitten each man his fellow: one another now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.
24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: and but ‖they went forward [4]into the land smiting the smiting the Moabites, even in their Moabites. country.
25 And they beat down the cities; cities, and [l]on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the fountains wells of water, and felled all the good trees: until in [n]Kir-hareseth only they left only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.
26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men [o]that drew sword, swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.
27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, [p]and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall.

And [1]there was great wrath, indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

4 [1] Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the [a]sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead, dead: and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: [b]and the creditor is come to take unto him my two children, sons to be bondmen. [2] And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, me; what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil. [3] Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; *borrow not a few. [4] And when thou art come, thou shalt go in, and thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels; vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. [5] So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons; they sons, who brought the vessels to her; her, and she poured out. [6] And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. [7] Then she came and told the [g]man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy †debt, and live thou and thy sons children of the rest.

[8] And ‡it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to [h]Shunem, where was a [i]great woman; and she §constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. [9] And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy [g]man of God, which passeth by us continually. [10] Let us make, I pray thee, make a little chamber, chamber, I pray thee, [2]on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither. [11] And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, chamber, and lay there. [12] And he said to [c]Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. [13] And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast [3]been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to [d]the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people. [14] And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no son, child, and her husband is old. [15] And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door. [16] And he said, At About this ‖season, [e]when the according to time [4]cometh round, the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. [17] And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season, season [e]when the time came round, as that Elisha had said unto her, her, according to the time of life. [18] And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. [19] And he said unto his father, [j]My head, my head. Would God my lord were [4‡]with the prophet that is in Samaria! then would he for he would [††]recover him of his leprosy. 4 And [7]one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel. 5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, [a]open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. 21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, [c]My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them? 22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive [e]with thy sword and with thy bow? [f]set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. 23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And So [i]the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 And it came to pass after this, that [j]Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. 25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore [1]pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab cab of dove's dung for five [1]pieces of silver. 26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. 27 And he said, [2*]If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the threshing-floor, barnfloor, or out of the wine-press? 28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, to day, and we will eat my son to-morrow. to morrow. 29 [o]So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the [†]next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son. 30 And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that [b]he rent his clothes; (now and he was passing passed by upon the wall; wall;) and the people looked, and, behold, [b]he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. 31 Then he said, [d]God do so to me, and more also, and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day. 32 But Elisha sat in his house, [g]and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of [h]a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and [3]hold the door fast against him: him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him? 33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; [k]why what should I wait for the LORD any longer?

7 1 And Then Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD: LORD; thus Thus saith the LORD, [l]To-morrow To morrow about this time shall a [4]measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. 2 Then [m]the captain ‡a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, [n]if the LORD should would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

another, Why sit we here until we die? 4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die. 5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the outermost / uttermost part of the camp of the Syrians, / Syria, behold, there was no man there. 6 For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians [a] to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us [b] the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. 7 [c] Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. 8 And when these lepers came to the outermost / uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and they / back, / again, came, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it. 9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, [1] punishment / * some mischief will overtake / come upon us: now therefore come, let us / that we may go and tell the king's household. 10 So they came and called unto the [2] porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the asses tied, and the tents as they were. 11 And [3] he called the porters; and they told it to the king's household / house within. 12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall take / catch them alive, and get into the city. 13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left [4] † in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it / † it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites / the Israel that are consumed:) and let us send and see. 14 They took therefore two chariots with / chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. 15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king. 16 And the people went out, and spoiled the camp / tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, [d] according to the word of the LORD. 17 And the king appointed [e] the captain / lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died / died, as the 8 1 Now Elisha had spoken unto the woman, [g]whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD [i]hath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land [j]seven years. 2 And the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. 3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land. 4 Now the king was talking with [o]Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done. 5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how [q]he had restored to life him that was dead, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life. 6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain [1]*officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 And Elisha came to [c]Damascus; and [d]Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. 8 And the king said unto [e]Hazael, [f]Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, [h]and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness? 9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present [2]†with him, [3]even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, [k]Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness? 10 And Elisha said unto him, [l]Go, [4]say unto him, Thou shalt surely recover; howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that [m]he shall surely die. 11 And he settled his countenance ‡stedfastly upon him, [n]until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. 12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know [p]the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, [q]and wilt dash in pieces their little children, and rip up their women with child. 13 And Hazael said, But what what, is thy servant, [a]which is but servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, [b]The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria. 14 Then So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me [e]that thou shouldest surely recover. 15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took the coverlet, a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fifth year of [i]Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, [1]Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah *began to reign. 17 [k]Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. 18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had [m]the daughter of Ahab was to his wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. 19 Howbeit Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, Judah for David his servant's sake, [p]as he promised him to give unto him [r]a lamp him alway a †light, [2]for his children alway. and to his children. 20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made [t]a king over themselves. 21 Then So Joram passed went over to Zair, and all his the chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people [w]fled to into their tents. 22 [y]So Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, Judah unto this day. Then did [a]Libnah revolt Libnah revolted at the same time. 23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried [c]with his fathers in the city of David: and [d]Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 [f]In the [g]twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. 26 [h]Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. 10 1 Now And Ahab had seventy sons in [a]Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, even to the elders, and unto to *[b]them that brought up the sons of Ahab, Ahab's children, saying, 2 And now Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour; 3 look ye even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. 4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? 5 And he that was over the household, house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and they that brought up the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, [f]We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any man king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes. 6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be on my side, †mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, [b]which brought them up. 7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, [j]and slew them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them unto him him them to Jezreel. 8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. 9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, [c]I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who smote slew all these? 10 Know now that there shall [d]fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that [e]which he spake ‡by his servant Elijah. 11 So Jehu smote slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his familiar friends, §kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining. 12 And he arose and departed, and went came to Samaria. And as he was at the [1]‖shearing house of the shepherds in the way, 13 Jehu met with [g]the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah: Ahaziah; and we go down ††to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen. 14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the [2]pit of the [1]shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on [h]Jehonadab the son of [i]Rechab coming to meet him: and he ‡‡saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? to him into the chariot. 16 And he said, Come with me, and see [a]my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot. 17 And when he came to Samaria, [c]he smote slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the word saying of the LORD, [d]which he spake to Elijah. 18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, [g]Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much. 19 Now therefore call unto me all the [h]prophets of Baal, all his worshippers, servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. 20 And Jehu said, [l]Sanctify *Proclaim [m]a solemn assembly for Baal. And [n]they proclaimed it. 21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into [p]the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled †full from one end to another. 22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. 23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; Baal, and he said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only. 24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now offerings, Jehu had appointed him fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have bring brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, [b]his life shall be for the life of him. 25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to [e]the [1]guard and to the captains, [f]Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with ‡the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. 26 And they brought forth the [2i]pillars that were in §images out of [p]the house of Baal, and burned them. 27 And they brake down the †pillar image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it [j]a draught house, house unto this day. 28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. 29 Howbeit from [k]the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [3o]wherewith he who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. 30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast [4]done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, [q]thy sons children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. 31 But Jehu ‖took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Israel with all his heart: for [r]he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, wherewith he which made Israel to sin.

the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. 5 Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, Hoshea the king of Assyria [e]took Samaria, [f]and carried Israel away unto into Assyria, [h]and placed them in Halah, Halah and in Habor, on Habor by the river of [i]Gozan, and in the cities of [j]the Medes. 7 And it was so, because For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, [m]which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, 8 [o]and walked in the statutes of the nations, heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, [q]and of the kings of Israel, which they had [1]made. 9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, [y]from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. 10 And they set them up 2[z]pillars *images and [a]Asherim upon groves in every high hill, and under every green tree: 11 and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger: 12 and For they served idols, [d]whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing. 13 Yet the LORD [f]testified unto against Israel, and unto against Judah, †[a]by the hand of every prophet, all the prophets, [b]and of every seer, by all the seers, saying, [c]Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by the hand of my servants the prophets. 14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, [d]but hardened their neck, necks, like to the neck of their fathers, who believed not that did not believe in the LORD their God. 15 And they rejected his statutes, [g]and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified unto against them; and they followed [k]vanity, [l]and became vain, and went after the nations heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the [n]LORD had charged them, them that they should not do like them. 16 And they forsook left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even [p]two calves, and [r]made an Asherah, a grove, and [s]worshipped all the host of heaven, and served [t]Baal. 17 [u]And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used [v]divination and [w]enchantments, and [x]sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. 18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but [b]the tribe of Judah only. 19 [c]Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they [1]made. 20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, [e]and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. 21 [a]For he rent Israel from the house of David; [c]and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam [1]drave Israel from following the LORD, [e]and made them sin a great sin. 22 And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; 23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, [g]as he spake by the hand of all his servants the prophets. [h]So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria, unto this day.

24 [k]And the king of Assyria brought men from [n]Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from [p]Ava, and from [q]Hamath and from [r]Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. 25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. 26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land. 27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land. 28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in [b]Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. 29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them [d]in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. 30 And the men of [f]Babylon made Succothbenoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites [i]burnt their children in the fire to [j]Adrammelech and Anammelech, the [2]gods of [l]Sepharvaim. 32 [m]So they feared the LORD, [o]and made unto them from among themselves priests of themselves of the lowest of the high places, which sacrificed for them in [s]the houses of the high places. 33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away. *whom they carried away from thence. 34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, [t]whom he named Israel; 35 with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, [u]Ye shall not fear other gods, [v]nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: 36 but the LORD, [w]who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a stretched out arm, [y]him shall ye fear, and unto him shall ye bow yourselves, worship, and to him shall ye sacrifice: 37 and the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, [z]ye shall observe to do for evermore; [a]and ye shall not fear other gods: 38 and the covenant that I have made with you [c]ye shall not forget; [a]neither shall ye fear other gods: 39 [c]but the LORD your God shall ye fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. 40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. 41 [g]So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images; their children likewise, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

18 1 Now it came to pass [i]in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that [j]Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. 2 [l]Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name also was [m]Abi, the daughter of Zechariah. 3 [n]And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. 4 [p]He removed the high places, and brake the *pillars, and cut down [s]the Asherah: and brake in pieces [t]the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and [1]he called it [2]†Nehushtan. 5 [u]He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; [v]so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. 6 [x]For he clave to the LORD, and he departed not ‡from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. 7 [z]And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: [b]he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. 8 [d]He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, §Gaza, [f]from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that [h]Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. 10 And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. 11 And the king of Assyria carried Israel away unto Assyria, and put them in [k]Halah, and in [k]Habor, on the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: 12 because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

13 [o]Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah [q]did [3]‖Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. 14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. [w]And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. 15 And Hezekiah [y]gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. 16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the 8 So Rabshakeh Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against [p]Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from [r]Lachish. 9 [s]And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying, 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God [v]in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, [x]Jerusalem shall not be given delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by [2]destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? 12 [y]Have the gods of the nations delivered them, them which my fathers have destroyed, destroyed; as [z]Gozan, and [a]Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of [b]Eden which were in Telassar Thelasar?

13 [a]Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? 14 And Hezekiah received [d]the letter the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, [g]that sittest upon the cherubim, [h]thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. 16 [i]Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; [k]open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, [m]to reproach the living God. 17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have [n]the nations and their lands, 18 and have [o]cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, [p]but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. 19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, [q]save us, I beseech thee, out of his hand, [r]that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that [h]thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [t]Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard thee. 21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him: [w]The virgin daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem [y]hath shaken her head at thee. 22 Whom hast thou [z]reproached and [a]blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against [b]the Holy One of Israel. 23 [c]By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, [e]With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into his farthest lodging place, the forest of his fruitful field. 24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet I will have dried up all the rivers of Egypt. 25 Hast thou not heard how long ago how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps. 26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. 27 But I know thy sitting down, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy raging against me. 28 Because of thy raging against me, and for that thine arrogancy is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. 29 And this shall be the sign unto thee: ye shall eat this year that which groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow

And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. 15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that is that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. 16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD. 17 Behold, the days come, that [s]all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried to into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. 18 [y]And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; [z]and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. 19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, [a]Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. 25 1 [g]And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, [i]that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, [he / he,] and all his [army, / host,] against Jerusalem, and [encamped / pitched] against it; [k]and they built forts against it round about. 2 [So / And] the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. 3 [On / And on] the ninth day of the fourth month [m]the famine [was sore / prevailed] in the city, [so / and] there was no bread for the people of the land. 4 Then a breach was made in the city, / And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between [the] two walls, which [was / is] by [r]the king's garden: (now [s]the [Chaldeans / Chaldees] were against the city round about:) and the king went [by] the way [of the / toward the] [u]Arabah. 5 [But / And] the army of the [Chaldeans / Chaldees] pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army [was / were] scattered from him. 6 [Then / So] they took the king, [v]and [carried / brought] him up [unto / to] the king of Babylon to [w]Riblah; and they [2*]gave [judgement / judgment] upon him. 7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, [y]and [t]put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him [in fetters, / with fetters of brass,] and carried him to Babylon.

8 [*Now / And] in the fifth month, on [b]the seventh day of the month, which [was / is] the nineteenth year of king [Nebuchadnezzar, / Nebuchadnezzar] king of Babylon, came [Nebuzaradan the / Nebuzar-adan,] [‡]captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem: 9 [d]and he burnt the house of the LORD, [e]and the king's [house; / house,] and all the houses of Jerusalem, [even / and] every great [house, / man's house] burnt he with fire. 10 And all the army of the [Chaldeans, / Chaldees,] that were with the captain of the guard, [h]brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about. 11 [j]And [Now] the [residue / rest] of the people that were left in the city, and [the] [§]fugitives that fell away, [that fell away] to the king of Babylon, and with the [residue / remnant] of the multitude, did [Nebuzaradan / Nebuzar-adan] the captain of the guard carry away [captive]. 12 But the captain of the guard left [l]of the [poorest / poor] of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. 13 [n]And the pillars [o]of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and [p]the [bases / bases,] and [q]the brasen sea that [were / was] in the house of the LORD, did the [Chaldeans / Chaldees] break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. 14 [t]And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. 15 And the firepans, and the [basons; that which was / bowls, and such things as were] of gold, in gold, and [that which was] of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. 16 The two pillars, [the] [‖]one sea, and the [bases, / bases] which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; [x]the brass of all these vessels was without weight. 17 [z]The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and [a / the] chapiter [of brass was upon it: / upon it was brass]: and the height of the chapiter

10 1 [a]Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down [1*]slain in mount Gilboa. 2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and [2†]Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul. 3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the [‡]archers §hit over him; took him, and he was distressed by reason of the archers. 4 Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and [3‖]abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore So Saul took his a sword, and fell upon it. 5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell upon his sword, fell likewise on the sword, and died. 6 So Saul died, and his three sons; sons, and all his house died together. 7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled; fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa. 9 And when they had stripped him, and they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the tidings unto their idols, and to the people. 10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house temple of Dagon. 11 And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all the valiant men arose, They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the [4]oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. 13 So Saul died [5b]for his trespass transgression which he []committed against the LORD, because of even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not; not, and also for that [c]he asked asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire thereby, of it; 14 and [d]inquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, [e]and turned the kingdom unto David the son of [††]Jesse.

11 1 [f]Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. 2 In And moreover times [‡‡]in time past, even when Saul was king, it was thou thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt §§[g]feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be [6]prince ruler over my people Israel. 3 So all the elders of Israel came Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, [h]according to the word of the LORD [*]by the hand of Samuel. 4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem ([i]the same is Jebus); [j]and the Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites, Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land, were there. land. 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come [in] hither. 14 These of the sons of Gad were were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: he that was *one of the least was [1b]equal to over an hundred, and the greatest [1]to over a thousand. 15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, [c]when it had [†]overflown all its his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. 16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David. 17 And David went out [‡]to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall [§]be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine adversaries, enemies, seeing there is no [2]‖wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. 18 Then [h]the spirit [3]came upon [i]Amasai, who was chief of [j]the [4]thirty, captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: [l]peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. So And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So And David's the servants of servants David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. 3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, [‖]Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? 4 So Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; them: for the men were greatly ashamed. Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him. 15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before [a]Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. 16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the River, with *river: and †[c]Shophach the captain of the host of [e]Hadarezer at their went before them. 17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of guilt unto trespass to Israel? 4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. 5 And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were [a]a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was [a]four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. 6 [c]But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab. 7 *And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. 8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, in that because I have done this thing: but now, [e]put away, I beseech thee, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. 9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's [f]seer, saying, 10 Go and speak unto tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I [1]†offer thee three things; things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. 11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Take which thou wilt; ‡Choose thee 12 either [h]three years of years' famine; or three months to be consumed destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, [2]even pestilence the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore consider advise thyself what answer word I shall return bring again to him that sent me. 13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very [3]§great are his mercies: and but let me not fall into the hand of man. 14 So the LORD sent [a] pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. 15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, destroying, the LORD beheld, and [b]he repented him of the evil, and said to the destroying angel that angel, destroyed, It is enough; now stay enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor threshingfloor of [4]‖Ornan the Jebusite. 16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, elders of Israel, who were [d]clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. 17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done very wickedly evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be against on me, and against on my father's house; but not against on thy people, that they should be plagued. 18 [g]Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and rear set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. 19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD. 20 And Ornan turned back, and saw

Now Ornan was threshing wheat.
21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. 22 Then David said to Ornan, *Give Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, threshingfloor, that I may build thereon an altar an altar therein unto the LORD: for the full price shalt thou give it me . thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. 23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal meat offering; I give it all. 24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering burnt offerings without cost. 25 So David gave to Ornan for the place [g]six hundred shekels of gold by weight. 26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; [h]and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. 27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time, time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. 29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, [k]were at that time season in the high place at Gibeon. 30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

25 And over the king's treasuries treasures was [u]Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasuries storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jonathan Jehonathan the son of Uzziah: 26 and over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub: 27 and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: and [§]over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite: 28 and over the olive trees and [d]the sycomore trees that were in the lowland low plains was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash: 29 and over the herds that fed in [f]Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai: 30 and over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite: 31 and over the flocks was Jaziz the [h]Hagrite. Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan David's [3]uncle was a counsellor, a man of understanding, wise man, and a [‖]scribe: and Jehiel the []son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons: 33 and [i]Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was [k]the king's friend companion: 34 and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of [m]Benaiah, and [n]Abiathar: [o]and the captain general of the king's host army was Joab.

29 [1] And Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, [n] is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for [p] the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. 2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of things to be made of gold, and the silver for the things of things of silver, and the brass for the things of things of brass, the iron for the things of things of iron, and wood for the things of things of wood; [2 s] onyx stones, and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. 3 Moreover also, Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, seeing that I have a treasure of mine own of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I give it unto I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house; 4 [d] even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of [f] Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal: 5 of The gold for the things of things of gold, and of the silver for the things of things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. Who then offereth willingly And who then is willing [3*] to consecrate himself his service this day unto the LORD? 6 Then [i] the princes chief of the fathers' houses, fathers and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with [k] the rulers over of the king's work, offered willingly; willingly, 7 and they gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand [m] darics, drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a one hundred thousand talents. talents of iron. 8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, under by the hand of [o] Jehiel the Gershonite. 9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because [q] with a with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. 10 Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, [r] Blessed be thou, O LORD, the LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. 11 [t] Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. 12 [c]Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou rulest reignest over all; [e]and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. 13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should [1*]be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and [2†]of thine own have we given thee. 15 [g]For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as all our fathers were: all our were all our days on the earth are [j]as a shadow, and there is no none [3‡]abiding. 16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own. 17 I know also, my God, that [n]thou triest the heart, [o]and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are [§]present here, to offer willingly unto thee. 18 O LORD, the God God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and [4‖]prepare their heart unto thee: 19 [s]and give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, [v]and to build the palace, [a]for the which I have made provision. 20 And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation [b]blessed the LORD, the LORD God of their fathers, [d]and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king. 21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their [f]drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel: Israel: 22 and did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king [h]the second time, and [i]anointed him unto the LORD to be [5]prince, the chief governor, and [k]Zadok to be priest. 23 [l]Then Solomon sat on the [m]throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. 24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, [6]submitted themselves unto Solomon the king. 25 And the LORD [p]magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, [q]and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 Now Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. 27 [r]And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. 28 And he died [t]in a good old age, [u]full of days, riches, and honour: and

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

1 AND [a]Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, [c]and magnified him exceedingly. 2 And Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to [d]the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince governor in all Israel, the heads chief of the fathers' fathers. houses. 3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to [h]the high place that was at Gibeon; [i]for there was [j]the tabernacle tent of meeting of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. 4 [l]But the ark of God had David brought up from Kiriath-jearim Kirjath-jearim to the place that which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. 5 Moreover [n]the brasen altar, that [o]Bezalel Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, [2]was there [†]he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation [p]sought unto it. 6 And Solomon [3]went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the tent tabernacle of the meeting, congregation, [r]and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 [b]In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. 8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great kindness mercy unto David my father, [e]and hast made me king to reign in his stead. 9 Now, O LORD God, [f]let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people [‡g]like the dust of the earth in multitude. 10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may [k]go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great? 11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked [m]riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of them that hate thee, thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king: 12 wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee [m]riches, and wealth, and honour, [q]such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like. 13 So Then Solomon [4]came 14 [f]And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: [g]and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed [h]in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. 15 And the king [*]made silver and gold to be in at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedars cedar trees made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the lowland, vale for abundance. 16 And the horses [†]Solomon which Solomon had were had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: Egypt; the king's merchants received them in droves, the linen each drove yarn at a price. 17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out [‡]by their means.

2 1 [m]Now And Solomon purposed determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom. 2 [o]And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand men that to were hewers hew in the mountains, mountain, and [q]three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. 3 [r]And Solomon sent to [1§]Huram the king of Tyre, saying, [s]As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me. 4 Behold, I build an house for to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him [b]incense of sweet spices, [‖]sweet incense, and for [c]the continual shewbread, and for [d]the burnt offerings morning and evening, [e]on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel. 5 And the house which I build is great: [i]for great is our God above all gods. 6 [j]But who [2]is able to build him an house, seeing [j]the heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn incense sacrifice before him? 7 Now therefore [k]send me Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill [††]to grave all manner of gravings, to be with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, [l]whom David my father did provide. 8 Send me also cedar trees, [3]fir trees, and [4‡‡]algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, [n]my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be [§§]wonderful great. 10 And, behold, [p]I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand [5]measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand [5]measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil. 11 Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, [t]Because the LORD loveth hath loved his people, he hath made

8 1 [e]And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, 2 that the cities which Huram had (given / restored) to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it. 4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. 5 Also he built [j]Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, [k]fenced cities, [k]with walls, gates, and bars; 6 and Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the (cities for his chariots, / chariot cities,) and the cities (for his / of the) horsemen, and *all that Solomon desired to build (for his pleasure) in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and (in / throughout) all the land of his dominion. 7 [o]As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of (Israel; / Israel,) 8 But of their (children that / children, who) were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, [of] them did Solomon (raise / [b]a levy of bondservants, unto / make to pay tribute until) this day. 9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and (rulers / captains) of his chariots and [of] his horsemen. 10 And these were the chief (officers of king Solomon, / of king Solomon's officers,) even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people. 11 [d]And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because [1]the places are [†]holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, [f]which he had built before the porch, 13 even [g](as the duty of every day required, / after a certain rate every day,) offering [h]according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the (set / solemn) feasts, [i]three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. 14 And he appointed, according to the (ordinance / order) of David his father, [l]the courses of the priests to their service, [m]and the Levites to their charges, to (praise, / praise) and n minister before the priests, [g]as the duty of every day required: [p]the (doorkeepers / porters) also by their courses at every gate: for [‡]so had David [q]the man of God commanded. 15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. 16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 Then went Solomon to [a]Ezion-geber, and to [*b]Eloth, [on] at the sea [shore] side in the land of Edom. 18 And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they [came] went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and [fetched from] took thence [e]four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

9 1 [f]And when [g]the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great [train,] company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. 2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was [not any thing] nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not. 3 And when [g]the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, 4 and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the [1]attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his [†]cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up [unto] into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. 5 And she said to the king, It was a true [‡]report [that] which I heard in mine own land of thine [2§]acts, and of thy [wisdom.] wisdom: 6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the [one] half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: [for] thou exceedest the fame that I heard. 7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. 8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in [thee,] thee [c]to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: [d]because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do [judgement] judgment and justice. 9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and [spices in] of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave [to] king Solomon. 10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, [h]which brought gold from Ophir, brought [3‖]algum trees and precious stones. 11 And the king made of the algum trees [i]terraces [for] to the house of the LORD, and [for] to the king's [house,] palace, and harps and psalteries for [the] singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah. 12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, [j]beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went [away] to her own land, she and her servants.

13 [k]Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold; 14 beside that which [the] chapmen and merchants [brought:] brought: [‡and] And all the kings of Arabia and [the] [††]governors of the country brought gold

29 [f]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, [g]first and last, are they not written in the [2]history ††book of [h]Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of [i]Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of [3]*j*Iddo [k]the seer concerning against Jeroboam the son of Nebat? 30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. 31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in [l]the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

1 [m]And Rehoboam went 10 to Shechem: for all Israel to Shechem were come to Shechem all Israel come to make him king. 2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he Nebat, who was in Egypt, [p]whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon,) Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. 3 And they sent and called him; and him. Solomon the son of David, rose is risen up, [b]and hath rebelled against his lord. [7] And there were are gathered unto him [c]vain men, [d]sons the children of [1]Belial, which and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was [f]young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them. [8] And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you [h]the golden calves calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods. [9] [j]Have ye not driven cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the peoples nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh [*k]to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are [l]no gods. [10] But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and we have priests ministering the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait in their work upon their business: [11] and they burn unto the LORD [p]every morning and every evening burnt offerings sacrifices and sweet incense: [q]the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; [t]and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, [u]to burn every evening: for we [v]keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him. [12] And, behold, God himself is with us at our head, for our captain, and his priests with [w]the sounding trumpets of alarm to sound an to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, [a]fight ye not against the LORD, the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper. [13] But Jeroboam caused [a]an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them. [14] And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them: [e]and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests [w]sounded with the trumpets. [15] Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that [g]God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. [16] And the children of Israel fled before Judah: [i]and God delivered them into their hand. [17] And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. [18] Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, [m]because they relied upon the LORD, the LORD God of their fathers. [19] And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, [n]and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and [2]Ephron Ephrain with the towns thereof. [20] Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and [r]the LORD smote struck him, [s]and he died. [21] But Abijah waxed mighty, and took unto himself married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. O LORD, thou art our God; let not ‡man prevail against thee. 12 [c]So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. 13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto [f]Gerar: and there fell of the the Ethiopians Ethiopians [4]so many were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were [5]§ destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much booty. spoil. 14 And they smote all the cities round about [f]Gerar; [i]for [6]the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them. 15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance and camels in and camels, abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead. 3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war. 4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day. 5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God shall deliver it into the hand of the king. 6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here besides a prophet of the LORD, that we might inquire of him? 7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesieth good concerning me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. 8 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. 9 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they sat in an open place at the Israel; the same Israel, who did very wickedly: 36 and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to [b]Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-geber. Ezion-gaber. 37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, [c]Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath [1]destroyed broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to [b]Tarshish.

21 1 [c]And Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead. 2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of [g]Israel. 3 And their father gave them great gifts, gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with [i]fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, Jehoram; because he was the firstborn. 4 Now when Jehoram was risen up over to the kingdom of his father, and he had strengthened himself, he and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of [g]Israel. 5 [m]Jehoram was [n]thirty and two years old when he began to reign; reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. 6 [o]And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had [q]the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he did wrought that which was evil in the sight eyes of the LORD. 7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give [t]a lamp *light to him and to his children alway. sons for ever. 8 In his days the Edomites Edom revolted from under the [a]hand †dominion of Judah, and made a king over themselves. themselves a king. 9 Then Jehoram passed over went forth with his captains, princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, in, and the captains of the chariots. 10 So the Edomites Edom revolted from under [d]the hand of Judah, Judah unto this day: then did Libnah day. The same time revolt at the same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand: hand; because he had forsaken the LORD, the LORD God of his fathers. 11 Moreover he made high places in the [2]mountains of Judah, and made caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem [f]to go a whoring, commit fornication, and [3]led compelled Judah astray. thereto. 12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked [h]in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor [j]in the ways of Asa king of Judah; Judah, 13 [o]but hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem [f]to go a whoring, [k]like as the to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab; [4]did and also [l]hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself: 14 behold, the LORD will smite with ‡a great plague with a great [5]plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy substance goods: 15 and thou shalt have great sickness [p]by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, sickness [6]day by day. 16 [r]And Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of [s]the Arabians which are beside Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians: 17 and they came up against into Judah, and brake into it, and §carried away all the substance that was found [1]in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save [2*a]Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. [18] And after all this the LORD smote him [b]in his bowels with an incurable disease. [19] And it came to pass, that in process of time, at the end of after two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, sickness: and so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, [c]like the burning of his fathers. [20] [e]Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and years, he departed [†h]without being desired; and desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

22 [1] [k]And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made [3]Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with [m]the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. [2] [4]Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his Jerusalem. [5] He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians wounded smote Joram. And [7§]Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in at Jezreel, because he was sick. [7] Now And the [8‖]destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went unto God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, [d]he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, [f]whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. [8] [g]And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was [j]executing judgement upon judgment the house of Ahab, that he and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, ministering that ministered to Ahaziah, and he slew them. [9] [l]And he sought Ahaziah, Ahaziah: and they caught him, (now for he was hiding hid in Samaria,) and they brought him to Jehu, Jehu: and slew when they him; [n]and had slain him, they buried him, for him: Because, they said, He said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, [o]who sought the LORD with all his heart. So [9]And So the house of Ahaziah had no power to hold keep still the kingdom.

[10] [q]Now But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. 12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to repair the house of the LORD. 13 So the workmen wrought, and 1*[g] the work was perfected by them, and they set up the house of God 2 in its state, and strengthened it. 14 And when they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof [h] were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and 3† to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. [2] And he did that which was right in the eyes sight of the LORD, [e] but not with a perfect heart. [3] Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was ‖ established unto to him, that he slew his servants which that had killed the king his father. [4] But he put not their children to death, slew not their children, but did according to that which as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, as where the LORD commanded, saying, [h] The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin. [5] Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered made them according to their fathers' captains over thousands, and houses, under captains of thousands and captains over hundreds, according to the houses captains of hundreds, even of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them [i] from twenty years old and upward, above, and found them [k] three hundred thousand chosen choice men, able to go forth to war, [l] that could handle spear and shield. [6] He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver. [7] But there came [n] a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim. [8] But [5] if thou wilt go, do valiantly, it, be strong for the battle: God shall cast make thee down fall before the enemy; enemy: [b] for God hath power to help, and to cast down. [9] And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the [6] army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this. [10] Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the [6] army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go †† home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home ‡‡ in fierce great anger. [11] And Amaziah took courage, strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to [f] the Valley of Salt, valley of salt, and smote of [g] the children of Seir ten thousand. [12] And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away alive, captive, and brought them unto the top of [7] the rock, and cast them down from the top of [7] the rock, that they all were broken in pieces. them, and burned incense unto them. 15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, [a]which [have] could not [delivered] deliver their own people out of thine hand? 16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, [Have we made thee] Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that [d]God hath [*]determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 [f]Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of [Jehoahaz] Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us [look] see one another in the face. 18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, [h]The [1†] thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by [‡]a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. 19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten [the Edom] the Edomites; and [i]thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou [2]meddle to [thy thine] hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? 20 But Amaziah would not hear; for it [was came] of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, [j]because they [had] sought after the gods of Edom. 21 So Joash [the] king of Israel went up; and [he and Amaziah they saw one another] king of Judah looked one another in the face in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. 22 And Judah was [§]put to the worse before [Israel; Israel,] and they fled every man to his tent. 23 And Joash [the] king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of [Joash Joash,] the son of [b]Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from [c]the gate of Ephraim [unto to] [3‖]the corner gate, four hundred cubits. 24 And he took all the gold and [the] silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with [e]Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 [g]And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? 27 Now [from after] the time that Amaziah did turn away []from following the LORD they [††]made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent [after to] [him to Lachish, Lachish after him,] and slew him there. 28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in [4]the city of [‡‡]Judah.

26 1 [And Then] all the people of Judah took [5§§]Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. 2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. 3 [k]Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began

And his name [*] spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 But when [g] he was strong, [h] his heart was lifted up [7] so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against the LORD his God; for he went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense. 17 And [l] Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men: 18 and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, [p] It pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, [r] but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God. 19 Then Uzziah was wroth; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, [s] the leprosy brake forth even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the altar of incense. 20 And

[a] Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them which were all *valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD, the LORD God of their fathers. 7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler governor of the house, and Elkanah that was [1†]next to the king. 8 And the children of Israel carried away captive [c]of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. 9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD, the LORD God of your fathers, fathers [g]was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage [h]which hath that reached reacheth up unto heaven. 10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not even with you [2]trespasses of your own with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? 11 Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive [c]of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you. 12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 and said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for ye purpose that which will whereas we have offended bring upon us [3]a trespass against the LORD, against the LORD already, ye intend to add unto more to our sins and to our [3]trespass: for our [3]trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. 14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. 15 And [b]the men which have been were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and [d]gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, [e]the city of palm trees, unto to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. 24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and [e]cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and [f]shut up the doors of the house of the LORD; and he made him [h]altars in every corner of Jerusalem. 25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places [†i]to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers. 26 [k]Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but [o]they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of [r]Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

29 1 [s]Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of [u]Zechariah. 2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. 3 He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, [x]opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. 4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, 5 and said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; now [b]sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. 6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and [d]have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and [‡]turned their backs. 7 Also they have [g]shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. 8 Wherefore [j]the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to be [3†]tossed to and fro, [§]to be an astonishment, and [m]an hissing, as ye see with your eyes. 9 For, lo, [n]our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. 10 Now [p]it is in mine heart [q]to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. 11 My sons, [‖]be not now negligent: [t]for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to minister unto him, and that ye should be his ministers, and minister unto him, and []burn incense.

when they had made an end of offering, [a] the king and all that were *present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. 30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises unto the praise LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. 31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now [b] ye have [1]†consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were [f] of a willing free heart brought burnt offerings. 32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. 33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore [i] their brethren the Levites ‡did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: [j] for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. 35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with [l] the fat of the peace offerings, and with [n] the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 [1] And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD, the LORD God of Israel. 2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover [c] in the second month. 3 For they could not keep it [d] at that time, [e] because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. 4 And the thing was right in the eyes of §pleased the king and [of] all the congregation. 5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, [g] from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not kept done it [2] in great numbers of a long time in such sort as it is was written. 6 [h] So the posts went with the letters ‖from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, [k] turn again unto the LORD, the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that and he may will return to the remnant that are escaped of you of you, that are escaped out of the hand of [m] the kings of Assyria. 7 And [o] be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD, the LORD God of their fathers, so that he who therefore gave them up

[10] [g]So the posts passed from city to city through the country of [m]Ephraim and [Manasseh, Manasseh] even unto Zebulun: but [o]they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. [15] Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither believe ye yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your [4]God deliver you out of mine hand? [16] And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. [17] He wrote also [5]letters, letters to rail on the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. [18] And Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. [19] And they spake of against the God of Jerusalem, as of against the gods of the peoples people of the earth, which are were the work of men's hands. the hands of man. [20] And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed Isaiah because of this, and cried to heaven.

[21] And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. 11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel. 12 [3]Artaxerxes, [r]king of kings, ‡unto Ezra the priest, [s]the a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, [v]and so at such forth. a time. 13 [w]I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and their of his priests and the Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own free will freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee. 14 For-asmuch as thou art sent [4§]of the king king, [x]and of his seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand; 15 and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and [x]his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, [z]whose 31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava [k]on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: [n]and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy enemy, and the lier of such as lay in wait by the way. 32 [o]And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. 33 And Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels [i]weighed in the house of our God [l]into by the hand of [s]Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was [t]Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of [v]Binnui, the Levites; 34 the whole by number and by weight: By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time. 35 [x]The Also the children of the captivity, those that had been carried away, which were come out of the exile, captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, [y]twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD. 36 [a]And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's [b]satraps, lieutenants, and to the governors beyond on this side the river: and they furthered the people people, and the house of God.

9 [1]Now when these things were done, the princes drew near unto to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests priests, and the Levites, [e]have not separated themselves from the peoples people of the lands, [f]doing according to their abominations, even of [h]the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. 2 [j]For they have taken of their daughters for themselves themselves, and for their sons sons: so that [l]the holy seed [m]have mingled themselves with the peoples people of the those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and [2]rulers hath been [3]chief in this trespass. 3 And when I heard this thing, [p]I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, [q]and sat down astonied. 4 Then were assembled unto me every one [r]that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass transgression of them of the those that had been captivity carried away; and I sat astonied until [u]the evening oblation sacrifice. 5 And at [u]the evening oblation sacrifice I arose up from my [4]humiliation, even with ‡heaviness; and having rent my garment [p]and my mantle rent; and mantle, I fell upon my knees, [w]and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God; God, 6 and [1] said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities [z]are increased over our head, and our [a]guiltiness §trespass is [b]grown up unto the heavens.

Lord, [a] which is great and terrible, [b] and fight for your brethren, your sons, sons, and your daughters, your wives, wives, and your houses. 15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, [e] and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. 16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and [g] the coats of mail, habergeons; and the rulers were behind [1] all the house of Judah. 17 They that which builded on the wall, wall, and they that bare burdens laded burdens, with themselves, those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held his weapon; a weapon. 18 and For the builders, every one had his sword girded * by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. 19 And I said unto [k] the nobles, and to the [2] rulers, rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another: another. 20 in In what place soever therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: us: [m] our God shall fight for us. 21 So we wrought laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. 22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labour in on the day. 23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, † saving that [3] [c] every one went with his weapon to put them off for the water. washing.

5 1 Then And there arose was [d] a great cry of the people and of their wives [f] against their brethren the Jews. 2 For there were that said, We, our sons sons, and our daughters, are many: let us get corn, therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat eat, and live. 3 Some also there were that said, We are have mortgaging mortgaged our fields, and our lands, vineyards, and our houses: let us get houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. 4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for [h] the king's tribute tribute, and that upon our fields and our lands and vineyards. 5 Yet now [i] our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, [j] we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to help it redeem them; for other men have our fields and our lands and vineyards. 6 And I was very angry when I heard [d] their cry and these words. 7 Then ‡ I consulted with myself, and contended with I rebuked the nobles nobles, and the [2] rulers, and said unto them, [l] Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I held set a great assembly against them. 8 And I said unto them, We after our ability [n] have [4] redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and would will ye even sell your brethren, and should brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? 10 And I likewise, I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, do lend might exact of them money and corn on usury. I pray you, let us leave off this usury. 11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their fields, lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. 12 Then said they, We will restore them, and [c]will require nothing of them; so will we do, even do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, [e]and took an oath of them, [f]that they should do according to this promise. 13 [g]Also I shook out my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise; promise, even thus be he shaken out, and *emptied. [j]And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise. 14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from [l]the twentieth year even unto [n]the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren [o]have not eaten the bread of the governor. 15 But the former governors that were had been before me [1]were chargeable unto the people, and had taken took of them bread and wine, [2]beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants [3]bare rule over the people: but so did not I, [p]because of the fear of God. 16 Yea, also I [4]continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. 17 Moreover there were [a]at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and the [5]rulers rulers, an hundred and fifty men, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are round about are us. 18 [b]Now that which was prepared for one day for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this [c]I demanded not required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. 19 [d]Remember Think upon unto me, O my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

But they thought to do me mischief. 3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? 4 And Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. 5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand; 6 wherein was written, It is reported among the nations, heathen, and [6][‡]Gashmu saith it, that thou and [q]the Jews think to rebel: rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall: wall, and that thou wouldest mayest be their king, according to these words. 7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. 8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. 9 For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. But now, Now therefore, thou [1]O God, strengthen my hands.

10 And I went Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, Mehetabeel, who was [f]shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. 11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being such as I, as I am, [2]would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. 12 And I discerned, and, lo, And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him: him; [k]but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: and for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13 For this cause Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. 14 [l]Remember, O my God, My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also on [m]the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month [a]Elul, in fifty and two days. 16 And it came to pass, that [b]when all our enemies heard thereof, that and all the heathen that were about us saw [3]feared, and these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: [c]for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. 17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah *sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. 18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shecaniah Shechaniah the son of [d]Arah; and his son Jehohanan Johanan had taken the daughter of [e]Meshullam the son of Berechiah to wife. Berechiah. 19 Also they spake of reported his good deeds before me, and reported uttered my †words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

7 1 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, [g]and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 2 that I gave [h]my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor ruler of [i]the castle, palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was [j]a faithful man, and feared God above many. 3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard, by, let them shut the doors, and bar ye them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. 4 Now the city was wide ‡large and large great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

8 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before [h] the water gate; and they spake unto [i] Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. 2 And Ezra the priest [l] brought the law before the congregation, both men and women, and all [*] that could hear with understanding, [n] upon the first day of the seventh month. 3 [p] And he read therein before the broad place that was before [h] the water gate [1†] from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. 4 And [i] Ezra the scribe stood upon a [2‡] pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. 5 And Ezra opened the book in the [§] sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: 6 and Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, [a] Amen, Amen, [b] with the lifting up of their hands: [c] and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. 7 [d] Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, [f] caused the people to understand the law: [g] and the people stood in their place. 8 And they read in the book, in the law of God, [3] distinctly; and [4] caused them to understand the reading. 9 And Nehemiah, which was [‖j] the Tirshatha, and Ezra [k] the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, [m] This day is holy unto the LORD your God; [o] mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and [q] send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye grieved; for the joy of the LORD is your [5] strength. 11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. 12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to [q] send portions, and to make great mirth, because [r] they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

And there was [r] very great gladness. 18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, [u] he read in the book of the law of God. against them; and So thou didst get thee a name, as it is this day.
11 [c]And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers persecutors thou didst cast threwest into the depths, deeps, [e]as a stone into the mighty waters.
12 [f]Moreover thou leddest them in a pillar of cloud by day the day; by a cloudy pillar; and in a pillar of fire by night, the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.
13 [i]Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, [j]and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them [l]right judgements judgments, and *true laws, good statutes and commandments:
14 [m]and madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them commandments, and precepts, statutes, and a law, laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

16 But they and our fathers [u]dealt proudly, [v]and hardened their neck, necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,
17 and refused to obey, [x]neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; [v]but hardened their neck, necks, [1]and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art [2]‡a God ready to pardon, [b]gracious and full of compassion, merciful, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, of great kindness, and forsookest them not.
18 Yea, [c]when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, [g]and had wrought great provocations;
19 yet thou [b]in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: [d]the pillar of the cloud departed not from over them by day, to lead them in the way; [d]neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.
20 [g]Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, [h]and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.
21 Yea, [k]forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, and so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.
22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and peoples, nations, [3]which thou and didst allot after their portions: divide them into corners: [n]so they possessed the land of Sihon, even and the land of the king of Heshbon, [p]and the land of Og king of Bashan.
23 Their children also multipliedst thou [s]as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou didst say hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.
24 [t]So the children went in and possessed the land, [w]and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples people of the land, that they might do with them §as they would.

And the singers *sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. 43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 [f] And on that day were men appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the heave offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the portions of the fields of the cities, appointed by the law for the priests and Levites: ‡ for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites § that [2] waited. 45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, and so did the singers and the porters, [j] according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. 46 For in the days of David and [l] Asaph of old [3] there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. 47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, [n] as every day required his portion: [o] and they ‖ sanctified holy things unto the Levites; [q] and the Levites sanctified them unto the sons of Aaron.

1 On that day  [r] they

13 read in the book of Moses in the †† audience of the people; and therein was found written, [t] that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God for ever; 2 because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that [b] they separated from Israel all [c] the mixed multitude.

4 Now before this, [d] Eliashib the priest, who [e] was appointed over ‡‡ having the oversight of the chambers of the house of our God, being allied unto [g] Tobiah, 5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, [e] where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, §§ [h] which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the heave offerings of the priests. 6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for [i] in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes [k] king of Babylon came I unto the king, and * after certain days † obtained I leave of the king: 7 and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, [m] in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. 9 Then I commanded, and they [p] cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the frankincense. 10 And I perceived that [s] the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one [a] to his field. 11 [b]Then contended I with the [1]rulers, and said, [c]Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their [*]place. 12 Then brought all Judah [e]the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the [†]treasuries. 13 And [f]I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and [‡]next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: [h]for they were counted faithful, and [§]their business office was to distribute unto their brethren. 14 [i]Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my [2][‖]good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the observances []offices thereof.

15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading winepresses wine presses [l]on the sabbath, and bringing in [3]sheaves, and lading asses therewith; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, [m]which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and [q]I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. 16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought [in] fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. 17 [r]Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and [t]profane the sabbath day? 18 [u]Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by [t]profaning the sabbath. 19 And it came to pass that, pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem [d]began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors gates should be shut, and commanded charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I over at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. 20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. 21 [g]Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye [4][††]about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. 22 And I commanded the Levites [j]that they should purify cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. [k]Remember unto me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the [‡‡]greatness of thy mercy.

23 In those days also saw I the Jews [n]that [5][§§]had married women wives [o]of Ashdod, [p]of Ammon, and [p]of Moab: 24 and their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and [*]could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language [†]of each people. 25 [r]And I contended with them, and [6][‡]cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, [s]and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters for unto your sons, or for yourselves. 26 [v]Did not Solomon

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

I 1 [a]Now it came to pass in the days of 3Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, [b]from India even unto Ethiopia, over [d]an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:) 2 that in those days, when the king Ahasuerus [e]sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [f]Shushan the 4palace, 3 in the third year of his reign, [g]he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: 4 when he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days. 5 And when these days were fulfilled, expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were †present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of [j]the garden of the king's palace; 6 there Where were hangings of 5white cloth, of 6green, and of blue, white, green, and ‡blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: [c]the couches beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement 7§of red, and white, blue, and yellow, white, and black black, marble. 7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and ‖royal wine in abundance, according to [h]the 8bounty state of the king. 8 And the drinking was according to the law; none could did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. 9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus. 10 On the seventh day, [i]when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, [k]Harbona, [l]Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven

5 There was a certain Jew in Shushan the palace, whose name was [a]Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of [b]Kish, a Benjamite; 6 [c]who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives which had been carried away with [1*]Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. 7 And he [2†]brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, [d]his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was [‡]fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter. 8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, [e]and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of [g]Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. 9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her [i]things for purification, with [§]such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and [‖]he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women. 10 [j]Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. 11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, []to know how Esther did, and what should become of her. 12 Now when the turn of every maiden was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been done to her twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with the other things for the purifying of the women;) 13 then in this wise came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. 14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name. 15 Now when the turn of Esther, [f]the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what [h]Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. 16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. 17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and [††]favour [‡‡]in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set [k]the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. 18 Then the king [l]made

[s]But Mordecai bowed not down, not, nor did him reverence. 3 Then the king's servants, that which were [u]in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou [a]the king's commandment? 4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's [4]matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. 5 And when Haman saw that [s]Mordecai bowed not down, not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman [f]full of wrath. 6 But And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai. 7 In the first month, which is that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, [j]they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, which is that is, [l]the month Adar. 8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and [5]dispersed among the peoples people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; [n]and their laws are diverse from those of all every people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not [6]§for the king's profit to suffer them. 9 If it please the king, let it be written ‖that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into to the hands of those that have the charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. 10 [r]And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha [t]the Agagite, [v]the Jews' ††enemy. 11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver

THE BOOK OF JOB.

1 THERE was a man in the land of [a]Uz, whose name was [1][d]Job; and that man was [e]perfect and upright, and one that [g]feared God, and [h]eschewed evil. 2 And there were born unto him [i]seven sons and three daughters. 3 His [2]*substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, she asses, and a very great †household; so that this man was the greatest of all [l]the children ‡men of the east. 4 And his sons went and held a feast feasted in the house of each in their houses, every one upon his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. 5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and [q]sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and [r]offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and [3][s]renounced cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job §continually.

6 Now there was a day when [u]the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and [4]‖[v]Satan came also among them. 7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From [w]going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. 8 And the LORD said unto Satan, ††Hast thou [b]considered my [c]servant Job? [5]for Job, that there is none like him in the earth, [f]a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil. evil? 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? 10 Hast not thou made [j]an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, hath on every side? thou hast [k]blessed the work of his hands, and his [2]*substance is increased in the land. 11 But [m]put forth thine hand now, and [n]touch all that he hath, ‡‡and he will [o]renounce curse thee [p]to thy face. 12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy [6]§§power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 And it fell on there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, house: 14 that And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: 15 and [7][t]the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the [8]servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. 16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, *[x]The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and

Till I die I will not (put away / remove) mine [a]integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I [b]hold fast, and will not let it go:
My heart [1]shall not [d]reproach me *so long as I live.
7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked,
And (let / he) him that riseth up against me (be) as the unrighteous.

will he always call upon God?
11 I will teach you (concerning / †by) the hand of (God; / God:)
[t]That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it;
Why then are ye (become / thus) altogether vain?
13 [w]This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
And the heritage of [y]oppressors, which they (shall / receive) (from / of) the Almighty.

[s]and not spare:
‡He would fain flee out of his hand.
23 Men shall [u]clap their hands at him,
And shall [v]hiss him out of his place.

29 1 And Moreover Job again *continued [b]took up his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in the months of old, past,
As in the days when God watched over preserved me;

3 When his [f]lamp †candle shined [1]upon my head,
And and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in [2]the ripeness days of my days, youth,
When the [3][j]secret of God was upon my tent tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
And when my [m]children were about me;

6 When my steps were [o]washed I washed my steps with [q]butter,
And [s]the rock poured †me out rivers of [t]oil! oil;

7 When I went forth out to [v]the gate unto through the city,
When I prepared my seat in the [4]street, street!

8 The young men saw me me, and hid themselves, themselves:
And the aged rose up arose, and stood; stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking,
And [y]laid their hand on their mouth; mouth.

10 §The voice of the nobles was [5]hushed, nobles held their peace,
And their [a]tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 For when When the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
And when the eye saw me, it gave witness unto to me:

12 Because I [f]delivered the poor that cried,
The fatherless also, [6]that had and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 [h]The blessing of him that was [i]ready to perish came upon me:
And I caused [a]the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I [c]put on righteousness, and it [7]clothed me:
My justice judgment was as a robe and [d]a [8]diadem.

15 I was [e]eyes to the blind,
And feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the needy poor:
And [9][g]the cause of him that which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I [h]brake ‖[i]the [10]jaws of the unrighteous, wicked,
And plucked the prey spoil out of his teeth.

18 [k]Then I said, I shall die [11]in my [l]nest,
And I shall multiply my days as [12][n]the sand: sand.

19 My [p]root is was [13]††spread out [14]to by [r]the waters,
And the dew lieth lay all night upon my [u]branch: branch.

20 My glory is was ‡‡fresh in me,
And my [w]bow is was §§[x]renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited,
And kept silence for at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again;
And my speech [z]dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain;
And they [b]opened their mouth wide as for the [c]latter rain.

24 [15]If I laughed on them, they [16]believed it not;
And [d]the light of my [e]countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat [as] chief,
And dwelt as [g]a king in the army,
As one that comforteth the mourners.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak; speak:
[j]I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
5 I had heard of thee by the hearing of the ear; ear:
But now mine eye seeth thee, thee.
6 Wherefore I [1]abhor myself, and repent
In [o]dust and ashes.

7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz [q]the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. 8 Now therefore, Therefore, take unto you now [r]seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and [t]offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall [u]pray for you; you: for [†]him will I accept, that I deal not accept: lest I deal with you after your folly; for folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing that is which is right, as like my servant Job hath.
9 [b]So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: and the LORD also accepted [‡]Job. 10 And the LORD [d]turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and also the LORD [§]gave Job [e]twice as much as he had before. 11 Then came there unto him all his [g]brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his [g]acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they [i]bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him [k]a [2]piece of money, and every one [l]a ring an earring of gold.
12 So the LORD blessed [m]the latter end of Job more than his beginning: and for he had [n]fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses. she asses.
13 He had also [p]seven sons and three daughters. 14 And he called the name of the first, Jemimah Jemima; and the name of the second, Keziah Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. 15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance [s]among their brethren. 16 And after After this Job lived lived Job an hundred and forty years, and [v]saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. 17 So Job died, being old and [w]full of days.

BOOK I. [R.V. only

I [1] [1] BLESSED is the man that [a] walketh not in [b] the counsel of the *wicked, ungodly,
Nor standeth in [c] the way of sinners,
Nor [f] sitteth in [g] the seat of [h] the scornful.
2 But his [i] delight is in the law of the LORD;
And in his [k] law doth he meditate day and night.
3 And he shall be like [m] a tree planted by the [n] streams rivers of water,
That bringeth forth its his fruit
in its season, his season;
Whose his [p] leaf also doth shall not †wither;
And [2] [r] whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4 The wicked ungodly are not so; so:
But are like [u] the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5 Therefore the wicked ungodly [w] shall not stand in the judgement, judgment,
Nor sinners in [x] the congregation of the righteous.
6 For the LORD [y] knoweth [z] the way of the righteous:
But the way of the wicked ungodly shall perish.

2 [1] [c] Why do [d] the nations heathen [3] ‡ rage,
And the peoples people [4] §[f] imagine a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel
together,
Against the LORD, and against his [d] anointed, saying,
3 Let us [e] break their bands
asunder,
And cast away their cords
from us.

4 He that [j] sitteth in the heavens shall [l] laugh:
The Lord shall have them in derision.
5 Then shall he speak unto them
in his [o] wrath,
And [5] ‖ vex them in his sore displeasure: displeasure.
6 Yet I have have I  [q] set my king
†† Upon my [s] holy hill of [t] Zion.

7 I will tell of declare ‡‡ the decree:
The LORD hath said unto me,

thee.

And [a] the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
9 Thou shalt [b] break them with [e] a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces
like [g] a potter's vessel.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1 [h]The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language; language,
§§where Their voice cannot be is not heard.

4 *[n]Their [o]line is gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a [6]tabernacle for [r]the sun,

5 [s]Which is as [t]a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course. a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven,
And his circuit unto the ends of it:
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 [w]The †law of the LORD is perfect, [x]restoring ‡converting the soul:
[y]The testimony of the LORD is [a]sure, [b]making wise [c]the simple.

8 [e]The precepts statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart:
The commandment of the LORD is [g]pure, [h]enlightening the eyes.

R.V. [1] Heb. caused to bow. [2] Heb. empty. [3] Or, wilt make [4] Or, yield feigned obedience Heb. lie. [5] Heb. salvations. [6] Heb. tent.

A.V. * Heb. caused to bow. † Heb. At the hearing of the ear. ‡ Heb. the sons of the stranger. § Or, yield feigned obedience. Heb. lie. ‖ Heb. giveth avengements for me.  Or, destroyeth. †† Heb. man of violence. ‡‡ Or, confess. §§ Or, without these their voice is heard. Heb. without their voice heard. * Or, Their rule, or, direction. † Or, doctrine. ‡ Or, restoring.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever:
The judgements (judgments) of the LORD are [b]true, [*]true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than [c]gold, yea, than much [d]fine gold:
[f]Sweeter (sweeter) also than honey and [1][†][g]the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
[k]In (and in) keeping of them there is great reward.
12 [l]Who can discern (understand) his errors?
[m]Clear (cleanse) thou me from [n]hidden (secret) faults.
13 [o]Keep back thy servant also [2]from [p]presumptuous sins;
Let them not have [r]dominion over me: then shall I be perfect, (upright,)
And I shall be clear (innocent) from [‡]the great transgression.
14 Let the words of my mouth (mouth,) and the meditation of my heart (heart,) be acceptable in thy sight,
O LORD, [§]my [u]rock, (strength,) and my [w]redeemer.

20 For the Chief Musician. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD [y]answer (hear) thee in the day of trouble;
[b]The name of the God of Jacob [c]set thee up on high, (‖defend thee);
2 Send []thee help from [d]the sanctuary,
And [3][†][g]strengthen thee out of [h]Zion;
3 [j]Remember all thy [4]offerings,
And [5][‡]accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah. [Selah
4 [l]Grant thee thy heart's desire, (according to thine own heart,)
And fulfil all thy counsel.
5 We will triumph (rejoice) in [n]thy [6]salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our [a]banners:
The LORD fulfil all thy petitions.
6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed;
He will answer (hear) him [§§]from his holy heaven
[*]With [e]the saving strength of his right hand.
7 Some trust in [h]chariots, and some in [i]horses:
[j]But we will make mention of (remember) the name of the LORD our God.
8 They are bowed (brought) down and fallen:
But we are risen, and stand upright.
9 [7]Save, LORD:
Let [q]the King answer (king hear) us when we call.

21 For the Chief Musician. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1 The king shall joy in thy [s]strength, O LORD;
And in thy [t]salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
2 Thou hast [v]given him his heart's desire,
And hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah. [Selah
3 For thou [x]preventest him with the blessings of [8]goodness:
Thou settest [z]a crown of [a]fine (pure) gold on his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou [e]gavest it him; (him,)
Even [f]length of days for ever and ever.
5 His [i]glory is great in thy salvation:
[k]Honour and majesty dost (hast) thou lay (laid) upon him.
6 For thou [9]makest (hast) [†]made him [m]most blessed for ever:
Thou makest (hast) [‡]made him glad with [o]joy exceeding glad with thy presence. (countenance.)

1 [l]The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
2 For he hath [p]founded it upon [q]the seas,
And established it upon the floods.
3 [u]Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD?
And or who shall stand in his [w]holy place?
4 ‡[x]He that hath [y]clean hands, and [z]a pure heart;

27

A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD is my [b]light and my [c]salvation; [d]whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the [1]strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the evil-doers, even mine enemies and my foes, *came upon me to [f]eat up my flesh,
Even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

3 [i]Though an host should encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me,
[2]Even then in this will I be confident.

4 [n]One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I desire seek after;
That I may [p]dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
To behold [3]†[s]the beauty of the LORD, and to [4]inquire in his temple.

5 For in the day of trouble he shall [w]keep me secretly hide me in his pavilion:
In the covert secret of his [5]tabernacle shall he hide me;
He shall [x]lift set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine [y]head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me;
And I will therefore will I offer in his [5]tabernacle sacrifices ‡of [6b]joy;
[d]I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 [f]Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice:
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 § When thou saidst, [a]Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee,
Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 [e]Hide not thy face far from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:
Thou hast been my help;
Cast me not off, leave me not, neither forsake me,
[g]O God of my salvation.

10 [7]For When [h]my father and my mother have forsaken forsake me,
But then the LORD ‖will [j]take me up.

11 [k]Teach me thy way, O LORD;
LORD,
And lead me in [l]a plain path,
Because of [8]††mine enemies.

12 [m]Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries enemies:
For [o]false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as [q]breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see [r]the goodness of the LORD
In [t]the land of the living.

14 [u]Wait on the LORD:
[v]Be strong, of good courage, and he let thine heart take courage; shall strengthen thine heart:
Yea, wait thou wait, I say, on the LORD.

2 [e]Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee,

4 He [u]deviseth [v]iniquity mischief upon his bed;
He setteth himself in [x]a way that is not good;

6 [d]Thy righteousness is like [††]the mountains of God;

[f]Thy judgements judgments are a great deep:
O LORD, thou [g]preservest man and beast.
7 [i]How precious ‡‡excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God!

38 A Psalm of David, [1] to [a]bring to remembrance.

1 O LORD, [c]rebuke me not in thy wrath:
Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
2 For thine [f]arrows [2]stick fast in me,
And thy hand [2h]presseth me sore.
3 There is [i]no soundness in my flesh because of thine indignation anger;
Neither is there any [3]health [*]rest in my [l]bones because of my sin.
4 For mine [m]iniquities are gone over mine head:
As an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds stink and are corrupt, corrupt
Because of my foolishness.
6 I am [4r]pained and [†]troubled; I am [s]bowed down greatly;
I [u]go mourning all the day long.
7 For my loins are filled with burning;
a loathsome disease:
And there is [i]no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am faint feeble and sore bruised broken:
I have [y]roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
9 Lord, all my desire is before thee;
And my [b]groaning is not hid from thee.
10 My heart throbbeth, panteth, my strength faileth me:
As for [f]the light of mine eyes, it also [‡]is gone from me.
11 My [h]lovers and my friends [ii]stand aloof from my [j]plague [§]sore;
And [‖]my kinsmen [l]stand afar off.
12 They also that seek after my life [b]lay snares for me: me:
And they that seek my hurt [d]speak mischievous things,
And imagine [e]deceits all the day long.
13 But I, as a deaf man, hear heard not;
And I am I was as [g]a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
14 Yea, I am Thus I was as a man that heareth not,
And in whose mouth are no [5j]reproofs.
15 For []in [k]thee, O LORD, do I hope:
Thou wilt answer, [††]hear, O Lord my God.
16 For I said, [n]Lest Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me:
When my [o]foot slippeth, they [p]magnify themselves against me.
17 For I am [q]ready [‡‡]to halt,
And my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will [t]declare mine iniquity;
I will be [v]sorry for my sin.
19 But mine enemies [§§]are lively, and they are strong:
And they that hate me [6w]wrongfully are multiplied.
20 They also that [x]render evil for good
Are [z]adversaries unto me, mine adversaries; because I [a]follow the thing that is good. good is.
21 Forsake me not, O LORD:
O my God, be not [c]far from me.
22 [d]Make haste [*]to help me,
O Lord my [e]salvation.

12 [f]Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry;

[k]Before I go hence, and [l]be no more.

40 For the Chief Musician. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1 I [‡‡n]waited patiently for the LORD;
And he inclined unto me, and [p]heard my cry.
2 He brought me up also out of [11§§r]an horrible pit, out of [s]the miry [clay; clay,]
And [he t]set my feet upon a rock, and [v]established my goings.
3 And he hath put [w]a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:
Many shall [y]see it, and fear,
And shall trust in the LORD.
4 Blessed is [the that] man that [z]maketh the LORD his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as [12c]turn aside to lies.
5 Many, O LORD my God, are [f the thy] wonderful works which thou hast done,
And thy [g]thoughts which are to us-ward:
[13*]They cannot be [‡set reckoned up] in order unto [thee; thee:]

R.V. [1] Heb. a bridle (or, muzzle) for my mouth. [2] Or, and had no comfort Heb. away from good. [3] Heb. standing firm. [4] Heb. a breath. [5] Or, as a shadow [6] Or, for vanity [7] Heb. conflict. [8] Or, consumest like a moth his delight [9] Or, Look away from me [10] Heb. brighten up. [11] Heb. a pit of tumult or destruction. [12] Or, fall away treacherously [13] Or, There is none to be compared unto thee

A.V. * Heb. a bridle, or, muzzle for my mouth. † Heb. troubled. ‡ Or, what time I have here. § Heb. settled ‖ Heb. an image.  Heb. conflict. †† Heb. that which is to be desired in him to melt away. ‡‡ Heb. In waiting I waited. §§ Heb. a pit of noise. * Or, none can order them unto thee.

If I would declare and speak of them,
They are [a]more than can be numbered.

6 [c]Sacrifice and [1]offering thou hast no delight in;
[2]Mine [d]ears hast thou [*]opened:
Burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I am come;
In the roll volume of the book it is [3]written [f]of me:

8 [h]I delight to do thy will, O my God;
Yea, thy law is [†j]within my heart.

9 I have [4]published preached righteousness in [l]the great congregation;
Lo, I will not [m]refrain refrained my lips,
O LORD, [n]thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart;
I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation:
I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD:
Let thy [q]lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have [t]compassed me about;
Mine [u]iniquities have taken hold over-taken me, so that I am not able [v]to look up;
They are [x]more than the hairs of mine head: therefore head, and my heart [‡5]hath failed faileth me.

13 [a]Be pleased, O LORD, to [b]deliver me:
[e]Make haste to help me, O LORD. O LORD, make me.

14 [d]Let them be ashamed and confounded together
That seek after my soul to destroy it;
Let them be [b]turned driven backward and brought put to dishonour shame
That delight in my hurt. wish me evil.

15 Let them be [6]desolate for a reward [7]by reason of their shame
That [e]say unto me, Aha, Aha. aha.

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:
Let such as love thy salvation [g]say continually,
The LORD be magnified.

17 But I am [i]poor and needy;
Yet [k]the Lord thinketh upon me:
Thou art my help and my deliverer;
Make no tarrying, O my God.

What work thou didst in their days, [e]in the days / times of old.
2 Thou / How thou didst [g]drive out the nations / heathen with thy hand, and [i]plantedst them in;
Thou / how thou didst afflict the peoples, / people,

3 For they gat / got not the land in possession [k]by their own sword,
Neither did their own arm save them:
But thy right hand, and thine arm, and [n]the light of thy countenance,
[p]Because thou hadst a favour unto them.
4 [r]Thou art my King, O God:
[t]Command [6]deliverance / deliverances for Jacob.
5 Through thee will we [u]push down our adversaries / enemies:
Through thy name will we [w]tread them under that rise up against us.
6 For I will not [y]trust in my bow,
Neither shall my sword save me.
7 But thou hast saved us from our adversaries, / enemies,
And hast [b]put them to shame that hate / hated us.
8 [c]In God have we made our boast all the day long,
And we will give thanks unto / praise thy name for ever. Selah. [Selah

12 [h]Thou sellest thy people †for nought,

[o]A shaking of the head among the peoples. people.
15 All the day long is my dishonour My confusion is continually before me,
And [r]the shame of my face hath covered me,
16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth;
By reason of [s]the enemy and the avenger.
17 [u]All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee,
Neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
18 Our heart is not turned back,
Neither have our ‡[x]steps [y]declined from thy way;
19 [1]That Though thou hast sore [b]broken us in the place of [d]jackals, dragons,

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or [h]spread forth stretched out our hands to [i]a strange god;
21 [k]Shall not God search this out?
[l]For he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
22 Yea, [b]for thy sake are we killed all the day long;

51 For the Chief Musician. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David: David, when [v]Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

1 [x]Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:
According to unto [y]the multitude of thy tender mercies [n]blot out my transgressions.
2 [f]Wash me throughly from mine iniquity,
And [b]cleanse me from my sin.
3 [c]For I [3]acknowledge my transgressions:

4 [ff]Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done that which is this evil [i]in thy sight:
[j]That thou mayest mightest be justified when thou speakest,
And be clear when thou judgest.
5 Behold, [l]I was shapen in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother [†]conceive me.

52 For the Chief Musician. [h]Maschil
To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David: when [i]Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

1 Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O [l]mighty man?
The mercy goodness of God endureth continually.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were any that did 4understand,
That did seek after God.
3 Every one of them is gone back; back:

There is none that doeth good, no, not one.
4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge?

54 For the Chief Musician; on [a]stringed instruments. [b]Maschil of David: [c]when Maschil, A Psalm of David, the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

1 Save me, O God, by thy [e]name,
And judge me in thy might.
2 [h]Hear my prayer, O God;

55 For the Chief Musician; on [a]stringed instruments. [b]Maschil of David. Maschil, A Psalm of David.

1 [w]Give ear to my prayer, O God;
And hide not thyself from my supplication.
2 Attend unto me, and answer me:
I am restless in my complaint, and [z]moan;
3 Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked;
For they [bb]cast iniquity upon me,
And in anger they persecute me.
4 My heart is sore pained within me:
And [d]the terrors of death are fallen upon me.
5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me,
And [f]horror hath [†g]overwhelmed me.
6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!
Then for then would I fly away, and be at rest.
7 [l]Lo, then would I wander far off,
I would lodge and remain in the wilderness. Selah.
8 I would [4]haste me to a shelter
From [n]the stormy wind and tempest.
9 [5]Destroy, O Lord, and [o]divide their tongue:
For I have seen [r]violence and strife in the city.
10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof:
Iniquity also and mischief are in the midst of it.
11 [t]Wickedness is in the midst thereof:
[6v]Oppression and guile depart not from her streets.
12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me;
Then I could have borne it:
Neither was it he that hated me that did [x]magnify himself against me;
Then I would have hid myself from him:
13 [aa]But it was thou, [‡]a man mine equal,
My companion, and my familiar friend.
14 [§]We took sweet counsel together,
We and walked in the house of God with [c]the throng.

73 ‖A Psalm of [a]Asaph.

1 [12]Surely
[]Truly God is good to [d]Israel,
Even to such as are [e]pure in
[††]of a clean heart.
2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone;
My steps had well nigh slipped.
3 [b]For I was [c]envious at the [13]arrogant,
foolish,
When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

But their strength is *firm.
5 They are not [1]†in trouble as other men;
Neither are they [cc]plagued ‡like other men.
6 Therefore pride is as [e]a chain compasseth them about their neck, as a chain;
Violence covereth them as [f]a garment.
7 Their [h]eyes stand out with fatness:
[2]§They have more than heart could wish.
8 They are scoff, corrupt, and in wickedness speak wickedly concerning utter oppression:
They [l]speak [3]loftily.
9 They have set their mouth [4]in against the heavens,
And their tongue walketh through the earth.
10 Therefore [5]his people return hither:
And waters of [o]a full cup are [6]wrung out by to them.
11 And they say, [q]How doth God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most most High?
12 Behold, these are the wicked; ungodly,
And, being alway at ease, who prosper in the world; they [t]increase in riches.
13 Surely in vain have I Verily I have heart, heart in vain,
And [w]washed my hands in innocency; innocency.
14 For all the day long have I been [cc]plagued,
And [7]‖[b]chastened [c]every morning.
15 If I had said, say, I will speak thus;
Behold, I had dealt treacherously should offend with against [f]the generation of thy children.
16 When I thought how I to might know this,
[8]It was [i]too painful for me;
17 Until I went into [a]the sanctuary of God, God;
And considered then understood I their [b]latter end.
18 Surely thou settest didst set them in [d]slippery places:
Thou castest castedst them down to into [9]destruction.
19 How are they become a desolation brought into desolation, as [g]in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with [i]terrors.
20 As [j]a dream when one awaketh;
So, O Lord, [10]when [k]thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.
21 For Thus my heart [11]was grieved,
And I was pricked in my reins: reins.
22 So [m]brutish foolish [12]was I, and ignorant; ††ignorant:
I was as [n]a beast [13]‡‡before thee.
23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee:
Thou hast [p]holden me by my right hand.
24 Thou shalt [r]guide me with thy counsel,
And afterward [s]receive me [14]to glory.
25 [u]Whom have I in heaven but thee?
And there is none upon earth that I desire [15]beside thee.
26 [x]My flesh and my heart faileth:
But God is [y]the [16]§§strength of my heart heart, and my [z]portion [a]for ever.
27 For, lo, they that are [d]far from thee shall perish:
Thou hast destroyed all them that [e]go a whoring from thee.

90 *A [a]Prayer of Moses the [b]man of God.

1 Lord, thou hast been our
[c]dwelling place
†In all generations.
2 [d]Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou [1]hadst formed the earth and the world,
[e]Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
3 Thou turnest man to [2]destruction;
And sayest, [g]Return, ye children of men.
4 For [j]a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as [l]yesterday [3]‡when it is past,
And as [n]a watch in the night.
5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as [p]a sleep:
In the morning they are like [r]grass which §groweth up.
6 In [s]the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;
In the evening it is [u]cut down, and [v]withereth.
7 For we are consumed [in by] thine anger,
And [in by] thy wrath are we troubled.
8 Thou hast [x]set our iniquities before thee,
Our [z]secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
9 For all our days are ‖passed away in thy wrath:
We [bring spend] our years [to an end] as [4]a tale that is told.
10 ††The days of our years are threescore years and [ten, ten;]
Or [even and if] by reason of strength they be fourscore [years; years,]
Yet is their [pride but strength] labour and sorrow;
For it is soon [gone, cut off,] and we fly away.
11 Who knoweth the power of thine [anger, anger?]
And thy wrath [even] according to [the fear] thy fear, that is due unto thee?
so is thy wrath.
12 [f]So teach us to number our days,
That we may ‡‡apply [get us an heart of] our hearts unto wisdom.
13 [h]Return, O [LORD, LORD,]; [i]how long?
And let it [k]repent thee concerning thy servants.
14 O satisfy us [in] [m]the morning [early] with thy mercy;
That we may [o]rejoice and be glad all our days.
15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast [q]afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.
16 Let thy [t]work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory [upon unto] their children.
17 And let the [w]beauty of the LORD our God be upon us:
And establish thou [y]the work of our hands upon us;
Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

At the presence of the God of Jacob;
8 Which turned [f]the rock into [g]a pool of standing water,
[h]The flint into a fountain of waters.

115 1 [j]Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But unto thy name give glory,
[l]For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
2 Wherefore should the nations heathen say,
[o]Where is now their God?
3 [q]But our God is in the heavens:
[s]He hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.
4 [t]Their idols are silver and gold,
[u]The work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, [v]but they speak not; not:
[x]Eyes have they, but they see not; not:
6 They have ears, but they hear not; not:
Noses have they, but they smell not; not:
7 They have hands, but they handle not; not:
Feet have they, but they walk not; not:
Neither speak they through their throat.
8 [ee]They that make them shall be are like unto them;
Yea, so is every one that trusteth in them.
9 O [i]Israel, [c]trust thou in the LORD:

1 Unto thee [do] I lift [l]I up mine eyes,
O thou that [m]sittest (dwellest) in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master, (masters,)

A Song of [e]Ascents. degrees.

1 Out of [n]the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.
2 Lord, hear my voice:
[o]Let thine ears be attentive
To [r]the voice of my supplications.
3 If thou, [6]LORD, shouldest [t]mark iniquities,
O Lord, who shall [v]stand?
4 But there is [w]forgiveness with thee,
[y]That thou mayest be feared.
5 I [z]wait for the LORD, [a]my soul doth wait,
And [c]in his word do I hope.
6 My soul [ee]looketh waiteth for the Lord, Lord
More than [g]watchmen look they that watch for [h]the morning; morning:
§I say, more than watchmen they that watch for the morning.
7 O Israel, Let Israel [j]hope in the LORD; LORD:
For [m]with the LORD there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he shall [o]redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

1 LORD, my heart is not [c]haughty,

1 LORD, remember for David David,
All and all his [t]affliction; afflictions:
2 How he sware unto the LORD,
And [v]vowed unto [w]the Mighty mighty One God of Jacob Jacob;
3 Surely I will not come into the [2]tabernacle of my house,

We will [h]worship at his [i]footstool.

14 This is my [r]resting place rest for ever:
Here will I [s]dwell; for I have desired it.
15 I will [7]††abundantly [u]bless her provision:

139 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, thou hast [b]searched me, and known me.
2 Thou [d]knowest my downsitting and mine uprising,
Thou [e]understandest my thought afar off.
3 Thou [1]searchest out [*]compassest my path and my lying down,
And art acquainted with all my ways.
4 For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, lo, O LORD, [h]thou knowest it altogether.
5 Thou hast [j]beset me behind and before,
And [k]laid thine hand upon me.
6 [l]Such knowledge is [m]too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
7 [o]Whither shall I go from thy spirit?
Or whither [p]shall I flee from thy presence?
8 [r]If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:
[t]If I make my bed in Sheol, hell, behold, thou art there.
9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
10 Even there shall thy hand [x]lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.
11 If I say, [a]Surely the darkness shall [2]overwhelm me, cover me;
[3]And even the light about me shall be night; night shall be light about me.
12 [d]Even Yea, the darkness [†]hideth not from thee, thee;
But the night shineth as the day:
[‡]The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
13 For thou hast [4a]possessed my reins:
Thou hast [5c]covered me in my mother's womb.
14 I will give thanks unto praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
[f]Wonderful marvellous are thy works;
And that my soul knoweth [§]right well.
15 [g]My [‖]frame substance was not [hidden] hid from thee,
When I was made in secret,
And curiously wrought in [i]the lowest parts of the earth.
16 Thine eyes did see mine unperfect substance, my substance, yet being unperfect;
And in thy [n]book [6]were all my []all my members members were written,
[††]Which day by day in continuance were fashioned,
When as yet there was none of them.
17 How precious also are thy [q]thoughts unto me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
18 [s]If I should count them, they are more in number than [u]the sand:
When I awake, I am still with thee.
19 [7]Surely thou wilt [v]slay the wicked, O God:
[w]Depart from me therefore, ye [y]bloodthirsty bloody men.
20 For they [8z]speak against thee wickedly,
And thine enemies [9b]take thy name in vain.
21 [c]Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee?
And [10]am not I [e]grieved with those that [f]rise up against thee?

His word runneth very swiftly.
16 He giveth [b]snow like wool:
He scattereth [e]the hoar frost like ashes.
17 He casteth forth his [h]ice like morsels:
Who can stand before his [j]cold?
18 He [k]sendeth out his word, and melteth them:
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19 He sheweth *his word unto Jacob,
His [n]statutes and his judgements unto Israel.
20 He [p]hath not dealt so with any nation:
And as for his judgements, they have not known them.
[1s]Praise ye the LORD.

[r]Let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause; cause:

But the belly of the wicked shall want.

14 1 [d]Every wise woman [e]buildeth her house:
But [1]the foolish [f]plucketh it down with her [own] hands.
2 He that [i]walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD:
But he that is [k]perverse in his ways despiseth him.
3 In the mouth of the foolish is [m]a [2]rod [3]of pride:

5 [r]A faithful witness will not lie:
But [t]a false witness [4]uttereth [will utter] lies.
6 [u]A scorner seeketh wisdom, and [v]findeth it not:

7 [5]Go [into from] the presence of a foolish man,

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way:
But the folly of fools is deceit.
9 [6a]The foolish [Fools] [7guilt sin]:
But among the [upright rightcous] there is [8d]good will. favour.
10 The heart knoweth [its *his] own [f]bitterness;
And a stranger doth not intermeddle with [its his] joy.
11 [j]The house of the wicked shall be overthrown:

12 [b]There is a way which [9]seemeth right unto a man,

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful;
And [g]the end of [that] mirth is [h]heaviness.
14 The backslider in heart shall be [j]filled with his own ways:
And [l]a good man shall be satisfied from himself.
15 [n]The simple believeth every word:
But the prudent man looketh well to his going.
16 [p]A wise man feareth, and [q]departeth from evil:
But the fool [beareth himself insolently, rageth,] and is confident.
17 He that is [s]soon angry [will deal dealeth] foolishly:
And a man of wicked devices is hated.
18 The simple inherit folly:
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
19 [x]The evil bow before the good;
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
20 [y]The poor is hated even of his own neighbour:
[z]But [†]the rich hath many friends.
21 He that [c]despiseth his neighbour sinneth:
But he that hath [pity mercy] on the poor, [e]happy is he.
22 [10]g Do they not err that [h]devise evil?
But [i]mercy and truth shall be [to to] them that devise good.
23 In all labour there is profit:

ECCLESIASTES;

OR, THE PREACHER.

1 THE words of [1a] the Preacher, the son of David, [b] king in Jerusalem.

2 [c] Vanity of vanities, saith [a] the Preacher; [c] vanity of vanities; [c] all is [f] vanity. 3 What [g] profit hath a man of all his labour wherein he laboureth under the sun? 4 [i] One generation goeth, passeth away, and another generation cometh: and [k] the earth abideth for ever. 5 [l] The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and *hasteth to his place where he arose. 6 [m] The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually in its course, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits. 7 All [p] the [2] rivers run into the sea, sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place whither they go, thither they †go again. 8 [3] All things are full of weariness; man cannot utter it: [r] the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9 [t] That which hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which hath been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. 10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been [z] already, in the ages already of old time, which were before us. 11 There is no [y] remembrance of the former generations; neither shall there be any remembrance of the latter generations that are to come, among those that come with shall come after.

12 I [d] the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 And I [h] applied gave my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is things that are done under heaven: it is a this sore [j] travail that God hath hath God given to the sons of man ‡to be exercised therewith. 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is [n] vanity and [4] a striving after wind. vexation of spirit.

15 [o] That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and [5] §that which is wanting cannot be numbered. 16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten me great more [q] wisdom [6] above than all that were they that have been before me [7] in Jerusalem: yea, my heart [8] hath ‖had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. 17 And I [s] applied gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know [u] madness and folly: I perceived that this also was is [u] a striving after wind. vexation of spirit. 18 For [v] in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

1 I [w] said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; mirth, [9] therefore enjoy [10] pleasure: and, behold, this also was is vanity. 2 I [z] said of laughter,

It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it? 3 I [a]searched in mine heart how *to give myself unto wine, mine heart yet [1]guiding me with wisdom, yet acquainting mine heart and how to lay hold on [c]folly, till I might see what it was was that good for the sons of men that men, which they should do under the heaven [2]†all the days of their life. 4 I made me great works; I [f]builded me houses; I planted me [g]vineyards; vineyards: 5 I made me [i]gardens and [j]parks, orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. kind of fruits: 6 I made me pools of water, to water therefrom therewith the forest where trees were reared. 7 I bought wood that bringeth forth trees. got me menservants servants and maidens, and had ‡[l]servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of [m]herds great and flocks, small cattle above all that were before me in Jerusalem. in Jerusalem before me. 8 I gathered me also silver and [o]gold, and the peculiar treasure of [p]kings and of [q]the provinces: I got me [s]men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, [3]"concubines very as §musical instruments, and that of all many. sorts. 9 So I was great, and [v]increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my [v]wisdom [t]remained with me. 10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them: them, I withheld not my heart from any joy, joy; for my heart [x]rejoiced because of in all my labour; labour: and this was my [y]portion from of all my labour. 11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was [r]vanity and a striving after wind, vexation of spirit, and there was no [b]profit under the sun.

12 [z]And I turned myself to behold [c]wisdom, and madness madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh [5]after the king? ‖even [b]that which hath been already done. 13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. 14 [d]The wise man's eyes are in his head, and head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I yet I myself perceived also that [e]one event happeneth to them all. 15 Then said I in my heart, [h]As it happeneth to the fool, so will it happen it ††happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also was is vanity. 16 For of the wise man, even as there is no remembrance of the fool there is wise more [k]no remembrance than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come all will have been already shall all be forgotten. And [n]how doth dieth the wise man die even as man? the fool! fool. 17 So Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun was is grievous unto me: for [r]all is vanity and a striving vexation after wind. of spirit.

18 And Yea, I hated [t]all my labour wherein I laboured which I had ‡‡taken under the sun: seeing that I must because I should [w]leave it unto the man that shall be after me. 19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed wisdom myself wise under the sun. This also is is also vanity. 20 Therefore I [z]turned went about to cause my heart to despair concerning of [t]all the labour wherein I had laboured which I took under the sun. 21 For there is a man whose labour is with in wisdom, and with in knowledge, and with [6a]skilfulness in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he [7]§§leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22 For what hath a man of [a]all his labour, and of [b]the striving of his heart, wherein he laboureth under the sun? 23 For [e]all his days are sorrows, and his [c]travail is grief; yea, even in the night his heart taketh no rest. This also is vanity.

24 [g]There is nothing better for a man, than that he should [i]eat and drink, and that he *should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was [k]from the hand of God. 25 For who can eat, or who can else can hasten hereunto, more than I? 26 For God giveth to a man that pleaseth him [n]God giveth is good †in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth [c]travail, to gather and to heap up, [q]that he may give to him that is good before God. [r]This also is vanity and a striving after wind. vexation of spirit.

3 1 To every thing there is a season, and [t]a time to every 4 purpose under the heaven: 2 a time ‡to be born, and a time to [v]die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; 3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 a time to [y]weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to [a]dance; 5 a time to [b]cast away stones, and a time to [d]gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time §to [e]refrain from embracing; 6 a time to ‖get, seek, and a time to [f]lose; a time to keep, and a time to [g]cast away; 7 a time to [h]rend, and a time to sew; a time to [k]keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 a time to love, and a time to [l]hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. 9 What [m]profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? 10 I have seen [c]the travail, travail which [d]God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised therewith. in it. 11 He hath [f]made every thing beautiful in its his time: also he hath set [5]the world in their heart, yet so that no man can man can find out the work that God hath done maketh from the beginning even to the end. 12 I know that there is [j]nothing better for no good in them, but than for a man to rejoice, and [6]to [l]do good so long as they live. in his life. 13 And also [m]that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in the good of all his labour, it is [o]the gift of God. 14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: [p]nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God hath done doeth it, that men should fear before him. 15 [7]That which is [s]hath been already is now; and that which is to be hath already been been: and God [u]seeketh again requireth that which is [8]passed away. past.

16 And moreover [w]I saw under the sun, in sun the place of judgement, judgment, that [x]wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness iniquity was there. 17 I said in mine heart, [z]God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is [c]a time there for every [4]purpose and for every work. 18 [9]I said in mine heart, It is because heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, ††that God may prove might manifest them, and that they may might see that they themselves are but as [i]beasts. 19 [j]For [10]that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one [11]breath; and so that a man

R.V. [1] Or, vexation [2] Or, hasten thereto [3] According to some ancient authorities, apart from him. [4] Or, matter [5] Or, eternity [6] Or, to get good [7] Or, That which hath been is now [8] Heb. driven away. [9] Or, I said in mine heart concerning the sons of men, It is that God &c. [10] Or, the sons of men are a chance, and the beasts are a chance, and one &c. [11] Or, spirit

A.V. * Or, delight his senses.  Heb. that which is driven away. † Heb. before him. ‡ Heb. to bear. § Heb. to be far from. ‖ Or, seek. †† Or, that they might clear God, and see, &c.

hath no preeminence above the a beasts beast: for all is vanity. 20 All go unto one place; all are of [b]the dust, and all turn to dust again. 21 Who knoweth [d]the spirit [1*]of man [2]whether it that [†]goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast [2]whether it that goeth downward to the earth? 22 Wherefore I saw perceive that there is [e]nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for [f]that is his portion: for who shall bring him back to see [h]what shall be after him?

4 1 [‡]Then I returned So I returned, and [j]saw considered all [k]the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no [n]comforter; and on the [‡]side of their oppressors there was power, power; but they had no comforter. 2 Wherefore I [q]praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive; 3 yea, alive. Yea, [3r]better than them is he than both did I esteem they, him which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Then I saw Again, I considered all labour travail, and [§]every [4t]skilful right work, that [5]‖for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This also is is also [s]vanity and a striving after wind. vexation of spirit. 5 The fool [w]foldeth his hands together, and [y]eateth his own flesh. 6 [z]Better is an handful [6]with [a]quietness, than two handfuls [6]with labour both the hands full with travail and striving after wind. vexation of spirit.

7 [i]Then I returned and saw I saw vanity under the sun. 8 There is one that is alone, alone, and he hath there is not a second; yea, he hath neither son child nor brother; brother: yet is there no end of all his labour, labour; neither are is his [c]eyes eye satisfied with riches. [a]For whom then, saith he, riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and deprive bereave my soul of good? This also is is also vanity, yea, it is a sore [c]travail. 9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. 10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth, and hath falleth; for he hath not another to lift help him up. 11 Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth heat: [g]but how can one be warm alone? 12 And if a man one prevail against him that is alone, him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is [l]a poor and wise a wise youth child than an old and foolish king, []who knoweth not how [m]to receive will no more be admonition any more. admonished. 14 For [o]out of prison he came forth to be king; cometh to reign; whereas also he [7]yea, [p]even that is born in his kingdom he was born becometh poor. 15 I saw considered all the living which walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, with the second child that stood shall stand up in his stead. 16 [8]There was is no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he that have been was: yet they before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is [s]vanity and a striving vexation after wind. of spirit.

5 1 [u]Keep thy foot when thou goest to [v]the house of God; God, for to draw nigh to hear is better and be more ready to hear, than to [x]give the sacrifice of fools: for they know consider not that they do evil. 2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter [9]any [††]thing before God: God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore [b]let thy words be few. 3 For a dream cometh with a through the multitude of [10]business; and a fool's voice with [d]a is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou [a]vowest a vow unto God, [c]defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: [c]pay that which thou vowest. hast vowed.
5 [f]Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.
6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before [h]the [1]angel, that it was [j]an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?
7 [2]For thus it cometh to pass through in the multitude of dreams and vanities many and many words words there are also divers vanities: but [m]fear thou God.
8 [n]If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away perverting of judgement judgment and justice in [3]a province, [o]marvel not [*]at the matter: [q]for one he that is higher than the high highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.
9 [4]Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.
10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this also is is also vanity.
11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what advantage good is there to the owner owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with his their eyes?
12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the fulness abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.
13 [a]There is a grievous sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept by for the owner owners thereof to his hurt: their hurt.
14 and But those riches perish by evil [5]c adventure; travail: and if he hath begotten he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.
15 [b]As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he [d]go again return to go as he came, and shall take nothing for of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.
16 And this also is a grievous sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what [g]profit hath he that he [‡]laboureth hath laboured for the wind?
17 [6]All his days also he [k]eateth in darkness, and he is he hath sore vexed much sorrow and hath sickness and wrath. wrath with his sickness.
18 Behold, Behold [7]that which I have seen to be seen: †it is [l]good and to be comely is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good in of all his labour, labour wherein that he laboureth taketh under the sun, [8]‡all the days of his life life, which God hath given giveth him: for this it is his [p]portion.
19 Every man also to whom [r]God hath given riches and [s]wealth, [t]and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is [u]the gift of God.
20 §For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 1 [v]There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon common among men:
2 a man [w]to whom [x]God giveth hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he [y]lacketh wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God [z]giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.
3 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that [b]the days of his years be many, but and his soul be not filled with [d]good, and moreover also that he have no [e]burial; I say, that [a]an untimely birth is better than [he: 4 for it For he] cometh in [with] vanity, and departeth in darkness, and [the his] name [thereof is shall be] covered with [darkness; 5 moreover it Moreover he] darkness. hath not [d]seen the [sun sun,] [1]nor known [it; any thing:] [2]this hath [f]rest [rather more rest] than [the other: other.] 6 [yea, Yea,] though he live a thousand years twice told, [and yet yet] [enjoy hath he seen] no good: do not all go to one place? 7 [i]All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the *appetite is not filled. 8 For what [advantage] hath the wise [k]more than the fool? [3]or what hath the poor [man], that knoweth to walk before the living? 9 Better [n]is the sight of the eyes †than the wandering of the desire: this [also is is] [o]vanity and [a striving after wind. vexation of spirit.]

10 [4]Whatsoever [That which] hath [been, been] the name [thereof was given [p]long ago, named already,] and it is known that it is [5]man: neither [can may] he [q]contend with him that is mightier than he. 11 Seeing there be many [6]things that increase vanity, what is man the better? 12 For who knoweth what is good for man in [his this] life, [7]‡all the days of his [v]vain life which he spendeth as [x]a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be [y]after him under the sun?

7 1 [a]A good name is better than precious ointment; and [c]the day of death than the day of one's birth. 2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will [g]lay it to his heart. 3 §Sorrow is better than laughter: [h]for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made [8]glad. better. 4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. 5 It is [b]better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. 6 [c]For as the ‖crackling of [e]thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. 7 [9]Surely [g]extortion oppression maketh a wise man [foolish mad]; and [h]a gift destroyeth the [understanding. heart.] 8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and [j]the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9 [l]Be not hasty in thy spirit to be [10]angry: [m]for [11]anger resteth in the bosom of fools. 10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire [12] wisely concerning this. 11 Wisdom [13]is [as good as ††good with] an inheritance: [yea, more and by it] excellent is it for there is profit to them that [r]see the sun. 12 For wisdom is a ‡‡defence, [even as and] [s]money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that [t]wisdom [preserveth the giveth] the life [of him to them] that [hath have] it. 13 Consider [u]the work of God: for [w]who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked? 14 [z]In the day of prosperity be joyful, [and but] in the day of adversity consider: [b]God [hath even made also hath §§set] the one [side by over side with against] the other, [d]to the end that man should [not find out any thing find] that shall be [nothing] after him.

15 All [this things] have I seen in the days of my [e]vanity: there is [f]a [righteous just] man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that [i]prolongeth his life in his [evil-doing. wickedness.] 16 Be not righteous over much; neither [j]make thyself over wise: why city where they had so done: this also is is also vanity. 11 Because [b] sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore [c] the heart of the sons of men is [1] fully set in them to do evil. 12 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and [f] prolong his days, his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that [g] it shall be well with [h] them that fear God, which fear before him: 13 but it shall [j] not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as [k] a shadow; because he feareth not before God. 14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be righteous just men, [m] unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, [n] to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. 15 Then I commended mirth, because a man [p] hath no better thing under the sun, than to [r] eat, and to drink, and to be merry: [2] for that shall abide with him in of his labour all the days of his life life, which God hath given giveth him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see [s] the [3] business that is done upon the earth: ([4] for also [u] there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:) 17 then I beheld all the work of God, that [w] man a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because however much though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea moveover, farther; though a wise man think to know it, [a] yet shall he not be able to find it. 1 For all this *I laid to considered in my heart, even to explore declare all this; [d] that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are [a] in the hand of God: whether it be love or hatred, man no man knoweth either love knoweth it not; or hatred by all is that is before them. 2 [d] All things come alike to all: there is [e] one event to the righteous righteous, and to the wicked; to the good [5] and to the clean clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that [i] sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. 3 This is an evil in among all that is things that are done under the sun, [d] that there is one event unto all: yea also, yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and [l] madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4 [6] For to him that is joined with to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5 For the living know that they shall die: but [o] the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for [q] the memory of them is forgotten. 6 As well Also their love, as and their hatred hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 Go thy way, [t] eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God hath already accepted now accepteth thy works. 8 [v] Let thy garments be always white; and let not thy head lack thy head lack no [x] ointment. 9 [7] † [y] Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy [z] vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy [b] portion in this life, and in thy labour wherein which thou labourest takest under the sun. 10 [c] Whatsoever thy hand [8] findeth to do, [e] do it with thy might; [f] for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in [1]the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I [a]returned, and saw under the sun, that [c]the race is not to the swift, nor [d]the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and [h]chance [i]happeneth to them all. 12 For man also [j]knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and [l]as the birds that are caught in the snare, even snare; so are the sons of men [o]snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 I have also seen wisdom This wisdom have I seen also under the sun on this wise, and it seemed great unto me: 14 there was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: 15 now there was found in it [t]a poor wise man, and he by his [u]wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. 16 Then said I, [w]Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless [y]the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of the wise 2*spoken* wise men are heard in [a]quiet are heard more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools. 18 [c]Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but [e]one sinner destroyeth much good.

10 1 *Dead flies cause the ointment of [f]the perfumer apothecary 3to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for 4outweigh wisdom and honour. 2 [i]A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left. 3 Yea also, when he that is a the fool walketh by the way, †his 5understanding wisdom faileth him, and he [b]saith 6to every one that he is a fool. 4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, [e]leave not thy place; [f]for 7yielding allayeth pacifieth great offences. 5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were [g]an error which proceedeth ‡from the ruler: 6 [k]folly is set §in great 8dignity, and the rich sit in low place. 7 [m]I have seen servants [n]upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth. 8 He that [p]diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh through a fence, an hedge, [q]a serpent shall bite him. 9 [r]Whoso 9heweth out removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that [s]cleaveth wood is shall be endangered thereby. 10 If the iron be blunt, and one he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. 11 10If Surely the serpent will bite 11before without it be [v]charmed, then is there no advantage in enchantment; and ‖a babbler is no 12the charmer better. 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are [x]gracious; but [z]the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of 13††his talk is mischievous madness. 14 [b]A fool also ‡‡multiplieth is full of words: yet a man knoweth cannot not tell what shall be; and [d]that which what shall be after him, who can tell him? 15 The labour of the fools foolish wearieth every one of them, for because he knoweth not [g]how to go to the city. 16 [h]Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a 14child, and thy princes eat in the morning! 17 Happy Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is 15the

THE SONG OF SONGS. SOLOMON.

I 1 THE Song of [a]songs, which is Solomon's.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth:
For ‖thy [d]love is better than wine.
3 Thine [f]ointments have a goodly fragrance;
Because of the savour of thy good ointments
Thy [g]name is as ointment poured forth;
Therefore do the [8]virgins love thee.
4 [k]Draw me; [l]we will run after thee:
[n]The king hath brought me into his chambers:
We will be [p]glad and rejoice in thee,
We will make mention of [d]thy love more than [of] wine:
[9]Rightly do they love thee.

5 I am black, but [s]comely,
O ye [t]daughters of Jerusalem,
As [b]the tents of [c]Kedar,
As the curtains of Solomon.
6 Look not upon me, because I am swarthy,
Because the sun hath [10]scorched me.
My [e]mother's sons were incensed against me,
They made me [h]keeper of [i]the vineyards;
But [j]mine own vineyard have I not kept.
7 Tell me, O thou [m]whom my soul loveth,
Where thou [o]feedest thy flock, where thou makest it to [q]rest at noon:
For why should I be ††as one that is veiled
Beside the flocks of thy [r]companions?

[a]seed of evil-doers, children that deal corruptly, are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they [d]have despised [e]provoked the Holy One of Israel, they are [g]estranged *gone away backward. 5 [1]Why will should ye be [h]stricken any more? ye will [†]revolt more and more: [2]the whole head is sick, and [2]the whole heart faint. 6 [k]From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and [3]festering putrifying sores: they have [o]not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with oil. ‡ointment. 7 [q]Your country is desolate; desolate, your cities are burned with fire; fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, [4§]as overthrown by strangers. 8 And [u]the daughter of Zion is left as a [v]booth cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in [x]a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. 9 [y]Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us [a]a very small remnant, we should have been as [b]Sodom, and we should have been like unto [b]Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye [5]rulers of [d e]Sodom; give ear unto the [6]law of our God, ye people of [e]Gomorrah. 11 [h]To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of he-goats. ‖he goats. 12 When ye come [7] to [l]appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to [m]trample tread my courts? 13 Bring no more [8]vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the [f]new moon moons and sabbath, sabbaths, the [p]calling of assemblies,— [9]I cannot away with with; [b]iniquity and it is ††iniquity, even the [c]solemn meeting. 14 Your [f]new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a [10]trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. 15 And when ye [j]spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, [l]when ye ‡‡make many prayers, I will not hear: [m]your hands are full of §§blood. 16 [n]Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; [p]cease to do evil; evil: 17 learn to do well; [r]seek judgement, judgment, [11*]relieve the oppressed, [s]judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and [t]let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as [w]white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. 19 [z]If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: 20 but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: [c]for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithful city [f]become an harlot! [g]she that it was full of judgement! judgment; righteousness lodged in her, it; but now murderers. 22 [i]Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water. water: 23 Thy thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; thieves: every one [j]loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: [k]they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

And he answered, Until [the] [c]cities be [waste wasted] without inhabitant, and [the] houses without man, and the land [become be] *utterly [waste, desolate,] 12 and the LORD have removed men far away, and [the forsaken places be many there be a great forsaking] in the midst of the land. 13 [2f]And if [But yet] there be yet a tenth in it, [in it shall be a tenth, †and] it shall [again return,] [be 3eaten up and shall be eaten]: as a [terebinth, teil tree,] and as an oak, [4]whose [5stock g remaineth, ‡substance is in them,] when they [6are felled; cast their leaves:] so [h]the holy seed [is shall be] the [5stock substance] thereof.

7 1 And it came to pass in the days of [j]Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that [k]Rezin the king of Syria, and [k]Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up [to toward] Jerusalem to war against [it; it,] but could not prevail against it. 2 And it was told the house of David, saying, [m]Syria [7§]is confederate with [n]Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the [forest wood] are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and [8‖s]Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of [v]the conduit of the upper [pool, pool] in the [high way highway] of the fuller's field; 4 and say unto him, [m]Take heed, and [x]be quiet; fear not, ††neither [let thine heart be faint, because of these be fainthearted for the] two tails of [these] [y]smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin [and with] Syria, and of [a]the son of Remaliah. 5 Because [Syria hath counselled Syria, Ephraim, and] evil against thee, Ephraim also, and [a]the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, 6 Let us go up against Judah, and ‡‡vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set [up] a king in the midst of it, even the son of [Tabeel Tabeal]: 7 thus saith the Lord GOD, [d]It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. 8 For the head of Syria is [e]Damascus, and the head of Damascus is [Rezin: Rezin;] and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken [in pieces], §§that it be not a [people: people:] 9 [and And] the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is [a]Remaliah's son. *[i]If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take [a]the spoil, and to take the prey, and [1*]to [b]tread them down like the mire of the streets. 7 Howbeit [c]he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, destroy and to cut off nations not a few. 8 For he saith, [h]Are not my princes all of them altogether kings? 9 [k]Is not [l]Calno as [m]Carchemish? is not [n]Hamath as [o]Arpad? [p]is not [r]Samaria as Damascus? 10 As my hand hath [2]found [t]the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; 11 shall I not, [v]as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and [w]her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that [x]when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, [a]I will [3†]punish the fruit [‡]of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. 13 [d]For he hath said, saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the peoples, people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have brought down put as a valiant the man [4]them that sit on thrones. 14 and my inhabitants §like a valiant man: hand hath found as a nest the riches of the peoples; people: and as one gathereth eggs that are forsaken, left, have I gathered all the earth: earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or that opened the mouth, or chirped. peeped. 15 Shall [l]the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? ‖as if a the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if a the staff should lift up him that is not itself, as if it were* no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his [d]fat ones [e]leanness; and [5]under his glory [f]there he shall be kindled kindle a burning like the burning of fire. a fire. 17 [g]And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and [i]his Holy One for a flame: and [j]it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers [q]in one day. day; 18 And he and shall consume the glory of [s]his forest, and of his fruitful field, ††both soul and body: and it they shall be [6]as when [u]a standard-bearer fainteth. 19 And the remnant rest of the trees of his forest shall be ‡‡few, that a child may write them.

20 And it shall come to pass [y]in that day, that [z]the remnant of Israel, and they that such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again [b]stay upon him that smote them; but [c]shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. 21 [7]A The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, [e]unto the mighty God. 22 [f]For though [8]thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, [g]only yet a remnant [9]§§of them shall return: [h]a the consumption is determined, overflowing decreed shall overflow * with righteousness. 23 For a the consummation, and that determined, shall the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, Lord, the LORD of hosts, make [i]in the even determined, midst of all the [10]earth. land.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord, the LORD Lord GOD of hosts, O my people [j]that dwellest in Zion, [k]be not afraid of [11]the Assyrian: though he he shall smite thee with the a rod, †and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of [m]Egypt. 25 For yet [n]a very little while, and the indignation shall be accomplished, cease, 14 And the LORD of hosts [h]revealed himself [it was revealed in mine ears by the in mine ears, LORD of hosts,] Surely [i]this iniquity shall not be [16]purged from you [j]till ye die, saith the [Lord, the LORD Lord GOD] of hosts.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of Ephraim, and to the fading flower whose glorious beauty of his glorious beauty, is a fading flower, which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are overcome with wine! 2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail, hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall he cast down to the earth with the hand. 3 The crown of pride of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim Ephraim, shall be trodden under foot feet: 4 and the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the firstripe fig hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up. 5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people: people, 6 and for a spirit of judgement judgment to him that sitteth in judgement, judgment, and for strength to them that turn back the battle at to the gate. 7 But these they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are gone out astray of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are gone astray out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgement. judgment. 8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean. 9 Whom will shall he teach knowledge? and whom will shall he make to understand the message § doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? breasts. 10 For it is precept precept ‖ must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little. little: 11 For with stammering  lips and with another tongue †† will he speak to this people: people. 12 To To whom he said, This is the rest, give ye rest rest wherewith ye to him that is weary may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. 13 Therefore shall But the word of the LORD be was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they may might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem: Jerusalem. 15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell [11] are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us; us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: 16 therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay [12] in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone of sure foundation, a stone: he that believeth shall not make haste. 17 And I will make judgement Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. 18 And your covenant with death shall be

[a]and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? 20 [b]Who are they among all the gods of these countries, lands, that have delivered their country land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? 21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. 22 [f]Then came Eliakim Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah Joah, the son of Asaph Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 1 [i]And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. 2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, priests covered with sackcloth, unto [k]Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. 3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a [m]day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of *contumely: *blasphemy: [p]for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. 4 [q]It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, [1]whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for [s]the remnant that is [†]left. 5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7 Behold, [c]I will ‡put a spirit in ‡send a blast upon him, and [d]he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to unto his own land; and [e]I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, [j]Let not thy God God, in whom thou trustest trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, lands by [2]destroying them utterly: utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? 12 [l]Have the gods of the nations delivered them, them, which my fathers have destroyed, as [n]Gozan, and [o]Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar? 13 [l]Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and [3]Ivvah Ivah? 14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and [r]Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, 16 O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, [t]that [4]sittest upon dwellest between the cherubim, cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: [a]thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 [b]Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear [c]all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God. 18 Of a truth, LORD, [g]the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries, and their land,
19 and have [†]cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22 this is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; [k]The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head [1]at thee.

26 [††f]Hast thou not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.
27 Therefore their inhabitants were [‡‡]of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as [4]a field of corn blasted before it be grown up.
28 But I know thy sitting down, [§§]abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy raging against me.
29 [h]Because of thy raging, and for that [5]thine arrogancy is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put [i]my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and [j]I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.
30 And this shall be [the] sign unto thee: ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.
31 And [6*]the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah [m]shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

48 [1] Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, [g]which are called by the name of Israel, and [i]are come forth out of the waters of (Judah: Judah,) [j]which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. [2] For they call themselves of the holy city, [n]and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; (the: The) LORD of hosts is his name. 5 [l]My righteousness is near, / near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the peoples / people; [n]the isles shall wait for / upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.
6 [o]Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: [q]for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die [3]in like manner: [r]but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.
7 [u]Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people [v]in whose heart is my law; [w]fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye dismayed at / afraid of their revilings.

6 [x]Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: 7 let the wicked forsake his way, and [†]the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for [‡]he will abundantly pardon. 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. 9 [c]For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. 10 [e]For as the rain cometh down, down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, [h]and giveth that it may give seed to the sower sower, and bread to the eater; eater: 11 so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but [j]it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. 12 [l]For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: [m]the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. 13 [o]Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

56 1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgement, §judgment, and do righteousness justice: [v]for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. 2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that

9 Therefore is judgement (judgment) far from us, neither doth righteousness (justice) overtake us: [b]we look (wait) for light, but behold darkness (obscurity); for brightness, but we walk in obscurity (darkness). 10 [d]We grope for the wall like the blind, yea, and we grope as they that have (if we had) no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; [1]among them that are lusty (night; we are in desolate) we are (places) as dead men. 11 We roar all like bears, [i]and mourn sore like doves: [j]we look for judgement, (judgment,) but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. 12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us, (us;) and as for our iniquities, we know them: (them;) 13 in transgressing and denying (lying against) the LORD, and turning away from (following departing away from) our God, [m]speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. 14 And [p]judgement (judgment) is turned away backward, and [p]righteousness (justice) standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness (equity) cannot enter. 15 Yea, truth is lacking (faileth); [q]and he that departeth from evil [*]maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and [†]it displeased him that there was no judgement. (judgment.) 16 [s]And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was [2]no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it upheld (sustained) him. 17 And (For) [w]he put on righteousness as a [3]breastplate, and [4]an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with [z]zeal as a cloke. 18 [a]According to their [5‡]deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; [a]to the [6]islands he will repay recompence. 19 [c]So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun: [7c]for he (sun. sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation [1]that was not called by my name. [2] [c]I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that [is] not good, after their own thoughts; [3] a people that provoketh me to [my face continually, anger continually to my] face; [that sacrificeth] in gardens, and [sacrificing] burning incense [bricks] upon [altars of brick]; [4] which [2sit remain] among the graves, and lodge in the [3secret places; monuments,] which eat swine's flesh, and [†]broth of abominable things is in their vessels; [5] which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to [me, me;] for I am holier than [thou: thou.] [these These] are a smoke in my [‡]nose, a fire that burneth all the day. [6] Behold, [k]it is written before me: [l]I will not keep silence, [m]but will recompense, [yea, even I will] recompense into their bosom, [7] your [own] iniquities, [o]and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, [q]which have burned incense upon the mountains, [q]and [4]blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I [5first measure their measure their former] work into their bosom.

[8] Thus saith the LORD, [u]As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it [not, not;] for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, [w]that I may not destroy them all. [9] And [y]I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and [my chosen mine elect] shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. [10] And [a]Sharon shall be a [6]fold of flocks, and [b]the valley of Achor a place for [the] herds to lie down in, for my people [d]that have sought me. [11] But [f]ye [are they] that forsake the LORD, that forget [a]my holy mountain, that [b]prepare a table for [7Fortune, that troop,] and that [b]fill up mingled wine unto [8Destiny; furnish the drink offering unto that] [‖]number. [12] [I will destine Therefore will I number] you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: [d]because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; [f]but [ye] did [that which was] evil [in before] mine eyes, and [did chose] that wherein I delighted not.

[13] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [h]my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed: [14] behold, [j]my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for [9]vexation of spirit. [15] And ye shall leave your name [n]for [10]a curse unto [p]my [chosen, and chosen: for] the Lord GOD shall slay [thee; thee,] and [r]he shall call his servants by another name: [16] [so] that he who [s]blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in [t]the God of [11]truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by [t]the God of [11]truth; [v]because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes. [17] For, behold, [x]I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former [things] shall not be remembered, nor [††]come into mind. [18] But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, [z]I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. [19] [c]And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: [e]and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for [c]the child shall die an hundred years old, old; and but [d]the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed. 21 [f]And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. 22 [f]They shall not build, and another inhabit;
they shall not plant, and another eat: for [j]as the days of a tree shall be are the days of my people, and my chosen mine elect *shall [1]long enjoy the work of their hands. 23 [k]They shall not labour in vain, [l]nor bring forth for [2]calamity trouble; for [n]they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring
[3]with them. 24 [o]And it shall come to pass that, pass, that before they call,
I will answer; and [q]while they are yet speaking, I will hear.
25 [s]The wolf and the lamb shall

[u]They shall not hurt nor destroy the LORD.

66 1 [v]Thus saith the LORD,
[w]The heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my foot-stool: what manner of where is the house will that ye build unto me? and what where is the place shall be of my rest? 2 [x]For all these those things hath mine hand made, and so all these those things came to be, have been,
saith the LORD: [z]but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that trembleth at my word. 3 [b]He that killeth an ox is as he that slayeth if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a [†]lamb, as he that breaketh if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth [4]an oblation, as he that offereth if he offered [aa]swine's blood; he that [5]‡burneth frankincense, incense, as he that blesseth if he blessed an idol: yea, idol. Yea, [b]they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations; abominations. 4 [e]I also will choose their [6]§delusions, and will bring [g]their fears upon them; [h]because when I called, none did answer;
when I spake, they did not hear:
[i]but they did that which was evil in evil before mine eyes, and chose that wherein in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD,
ye that tremble at his word: word;
Your
brethren that hate hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, have said, [m]Let the LORD be glorified, glorified:
that we may see but he shall appear to your joy; but joy, and they shall be ashamed. 6 A voice of tumult noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD
[p]that rendereth recompence to his enemies. 7 [r]Before she travailed, she brought forth;
before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. 8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall a land be [7]born
the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be brought forth born at once? for [r]as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. 9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not ‖cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I that cause to bring forth cause to bring forth, and shut the womb?

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET
JEREMIAH.

1 THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, [a]of the priests that were in [c]Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: 2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of [b]Josiah the son of Amon, Amon king of Judah, [d]in the thirteenth year of his reign.

R.V. [1] Or, then shall ye suck, ye &c. [2] Or, in [3] Or, in [4] Many ancient authorities have, one after another. [5] Or, one tree (or Asherah; see Deut. 16. 21) [6] Many ancient authorities have, I come to gather &c. [7] Or, dromedaries
A.V. * Or, one after another. † Or, couches. ‡ Heb. from new moon to his new moon, and from sabbath to his sabbath.

3 It came also in the days of [a]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, Josiah king of Judah, [b]unto the end of the eleventh year of [d]Zedekiah the son of Josiah, Josiah king of Judah, Judah; [e]unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Now Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 5 [g]Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee, thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb [i]I sanctified thee; I have thee, and I appointed *ordained thee a prophet [k]unto the nations. 6 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, [m]I cannot speak: [n]for I am a child. 7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for [1]to whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and [r]whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. 8 [t]Be not afraid because of them their faces: [u]for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. 9 [v]Then the LORD put forth his hand, and [z]touched my mouth; and mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put [a]my words in thy mouth: mouth. 10 see, See, I have this day set thee [k]over the nations and over the kingdoms, [b]to pluck up root out, and to break pull down, and to destroy destroy, and to overthrow; throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [d]Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of [2]an almond tree. 12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: [e]for I watch over will hasten my word to perform it. 13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see [j]a seething caldron pot; and the face thereof is [m]from †toward the north. 14 Then the LORD said unto me, [m]Out of the north an evil [4]‡shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. 15 For, lo, [c]I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, [f]and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. 16 And [h]I will [5]utter my judgements judgments against them touching all their wickedness; [j]in that wickedness, they who have forsaken me, [l]and have burned incense unto other gods, and [o]worshipped the works of their own hands. 17 Thou therefore [p]gird up thy loins, and arise, and [q]speak unto them all that I command thee: [s]be not dismayed at them, their faces, lest I §dismay confound thee before them. 18 For, behold, I have made thee this day [w]a defenced city, and [x]an iron pillar, and [y]brasen walls, walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land. 19 [y]And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee: thee; for [c]I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

2 1 And Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 Go, Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, LORD; I remember [6]for thee ‖thee, the kindness of [f]thy youth, the love of [g]thine espousals; [k]how espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, [i]in a land that was not sown. 3 [k]Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and [l]the firstfruits of his increase: [n]all that devour him shall be held guilty; offend evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: 5 thus Thus saith the LORD, [c]What unrighteousness iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, [e]and have walked after [f]vanity, and are become vain? 6 Neither said they, [h]Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt; Egypt, that led us [l]through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought drought, and of [1]the shadow of death, through a land that none no man passed through, and where no man dwelt? 7 [p]And I brought you into *a plentiful land, country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, [s]ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination. 8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and [w]they that handle the law knew me not: [x]the [2]rulers pastors also transgressed against me, [a]and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after [b]things that do not profit. 9 Wherefore [c]I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and [e]with your children's children will I plead. 10 For pass †over to the isles of [h]Kittim, Chittim, and see; and send unto [i]Kedar, and consider diligently; diligently, and see if there hath be been such a thing. 11 [l]Hath a nation changed their gods, [n]which yet are are yet no gods? but my people [o]have changed their glory for [b]that which doth not profit. 12 Be astonished, [q]O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. 13 For my people have committed two evils; [t]they have forsaken [u]me the fountain of [a]living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. 14 [b]Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he become a prey ‡spoiled? 15 [d]The young lions have roared upon him, and §yelled; §yelled, and they have made his land waste; waste: his cities are burned up, [g]without inhabitant. 16 The children also Also the children of [i]Noph and [j]Tahpanhes Tahapanes ‖ [k] have [4]broken the crown of thy head. 17 [m]Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when [n]he led thee by the way? 18 [o]And now what hast thou to do in the way to of Egypt, to drink the waters of [5?]Shihor Sihor? [r]or what hast thou to do in the way to of Assyria, to drink the waters of [6t]the River river? 19 [u]Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and [v]thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and [a] [y]bitter, that [z]thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord, the LORD Lord GOD of hosts. 20 For of old time [7]I have [d]broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, [f]I will not [8]serve transgress; [g]for when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou didst bow thyself, wanderest, [j]playing the harlot. 21 [k]Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: [m]how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? 22 [p]For though thou wash thee with lye, nitre, and take thee much soap, [r]yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD. 23 [s]How canst thou say, I am not defiled, polluted, I have not gone after the Baalim? see thy way [v]in the valley, know

[25] Withhold [d]thy foot from being unshod, and [f]thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; [g]for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. [29] Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD. [30] In vain have I [v]smitten your children; they received no [4]correction: [x]your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. [31] O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? [or] a land of [5]thick darkness? wherefore say my people, We are [broken lords loose]; we will come no more unto thee? [32] [a]Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet [a]my people have forgotten me days without number. [33] [How Why] trimmest thou thy way to seek [love! love?] therefore [even hast thou] [the wicked woman hast thou taught also taught the wicked ones] thy ways. 19 [o]My bowels, my bowels! [3]I am pained at [4]my very heart; my heart (is disquieted / maketh a noise) in me; I cannot hold my (peace / peace;) because [5]thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. 20 [s]Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: [u]suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. 21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? 22 For [x]my people is foolish, they (know me not / have not known me); they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: [y]they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was ([a]waste / without form,) and void; [b]and the heavens, and they had no light. 24 I beheld [d]the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills [6]moved (to and fro. / lightly.) 25 [g]I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. 26 I beheld, and, lo, [7]the [b]fruitful (field / place) was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and (before / by) [d]his fierce anger. 27 For thus (saith the LORD, / hath the LORD said,) The whole land shall be [a](desolation / desolate); [f]yet will I not make a full end. 28 [g]For this shall the earth mourn, [h]and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and [7]I (have / will) not (repented, / repent,) neither will I turn back from it. 29 The whole city (fleeth / shall flee) for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they (go into / shall go into) thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city (is / shall be) forsaken, and [n]not a man (dwelleth / dwell) therein. 30 And (thou, / when thou art spoiled,) what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with (scarlet, / crimson,) [p]though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, [q]though thou [8](enlargest thine eyes / rentest thy †face) with (paint, / painting,) [r]in vain (dost / shalt) thou make thyself fair; [t]thy lovers (will / will) despise thee, they (will / will) seek thy life. 31 For I have heard [v]a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that (gaspeth for breath, / bewaileth herself,) [w]that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul (fainteth before the / is wearied because of) murderers.

5 1 [z]Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, [c]if ye can find a man, if there be any that (doeth justly, / executeth judgment,) that seeketh (the / [y]truth; [e]and I will pardon (her. / it.) 2 [f]And though they say, (As the / The) LORD liveth; [h]surely they swear falsely. 3 O LORD, [10](do / are) not thine
